

Great Sensation Today at City Hall

ANOTHER OUTBREAK AT SCRANTON TODAY

Strikers Broke Through Police Lines and Drive People From Work

Shots Fired, Guns and Clubs Used—State Police Charged the Mob—Women Took Prominent Part in the Rioting

SCRANTON, Pa., May 10.—Cayuga strike breakers of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Co. in North Scranton fouled the background of an ugly riotous demonstration today. Foreign workmen were leaders among the crowd of 2,000 men and boys that assembled near the breaker to keep away men who were going to work, defied the squad of local police who an hour before had been hurried from every city station on notice from the mine officials that trouble was threatened. The idle workers broke through the police lines, rushed the fire rooms and dragged out men, turning them over to others who beat them and threw them aside. State police on duty all night at the Leggett's Creek mine, a mile away, hurried over. Their coming rallied the local police and together the officers charged the mob. There were shots from the rioters. Bricks, stones and clubs were thrown and the officers, dropping their clubs, drew their guns and began to force the crowd back. Some shots were fired by the police as Policemen Peter Marker and Louis Davis fell, both with battered heads from cobblestones. The state police then charged the crowd. Two foreigners dropped to the ground, the first shot through the stomach, the other in the leg. The crowd then broke and ran and the police combined to drive them on toward the houses. Two men and a half dozen women were arrested. The rioters took refuge behind cars on the railroad near the breaker but were finally dispersed when the railroad police came upon a special car and began to hand out guns to the local policemen. Captain Williams and Director O'Malley of the Scranton department of public safety ordered the police to patrol the entire grounds and to suppress at once any further trouble. They also warned the crowd attracted to the place by the trouble to disperse, telling them to remain away and stay peaceable. The police and troopers now seem to have the situation under control. William Littlejohn, going to fire duty at the Leggett's Creek mine, was badly beaten by women.

CITY OFFICIALS WERE MERCILESSLY BOSSSES WITH TAFT, SCORED BY ACCOUNTANT REX

He Proves By Figures on a Blackboard That Huntington Hall Money, Nesmith and Other Funds Have Been Spent

Says We Have Too Many Clerks at City Hall, Put There as Favorites by Politicians—He Advises the Abolition of One City Department and a Reduction in the Number of Clerks

At a meeting of the municipal council held this forenoon, George M. Rex, the expert accountant, proved by practical demonstration with the blackboard and crayon that the $49,000, known as the Huntington hall fund is a financial futility and an account which is chimerical in character. He also demonstrated the fact that there is a deficit in the city treasury; that the Nesmith and other funds have gone the way of the Huntington hall fund and that Lowell's system of book-keeping is passe. Mr. Rex said that money could be saved by reducing the clerical force at city hall, by better departmental management and by abolishing at least one department.

He said that men were not elected to the legislature or to the municipal council because of their knowledge of affairs. He said that men who spent money for a purpose other than that for which it was appropriated were guilty of misfeasance in office. It was one of the most interesting meetings that the council has held this year and Mr. Rex provided a lot of side lights that will be of great assistance later on. He did not beat about the bush and in each and every instance he called a spade a spade. "One very important action of the meeting had to do with the borrowing of $700,000 to meet obligations, outstanding. Mr. Rex said that to go to the legislature and seek permission to borrow was the only remedy. The council voted to go to the legislature and ask for permission to borrow $700,000 for the purpose of paying certain outstanding notes. The petition will be submitted to the legislature on Monday morning, and the council further voted to ask that the hearing on the matter be held in this city. The commissioner of finance was instructed to have Mr. Rex present at the hearing in order that he might give the legislative committee all the information necessary.

In the course of the meeting, Commissioner Brown said that the heads of departments at city hall were mere figureheads and Mayor O'Donnell said that if they were but figureheads they should be discharged, whereupon Mr.

GEORGE M. REX, Expert Accountant

Brown replied that there were some city services which might be dispensed with. The meeting was not without its humor and comedy and at one time when near repartee was in motion, Mr. Rex suggested that one way of saving money would be for the commissioners to give back their princely salaries to the city and serve "faithfully and well" for the glory of it.

"That's a joke, not for publication," said Mr. Rex to the reporters. "Let them say that we said we would do that and the people wouldn't believe it," said Mr. Cummings.

"School days, school days, when we were a couple of kids," hummed Alderman Barrett when he entered the council chamber at 10 o'clock and observed the blackboards upon which Mr. Rex demonstrated the fact that the Huntington hall fund lives in name only. After humming the school days lines, Mr. Barrett looked soberly at the blackboard and allowed that the schoolmaster would probably do some pretty interesting figuring before recess.

The Meeting Mayor O'Donnell called to order at 10:20 o'clock and the first business of the meeting was the drawing of four traverse jurors to serve at the superior court now in session at Cambridge and to report on Monday the thirteenth day of May. They were: Winfield Cross, 35 Seventh street, janitor; Joseph P. Corcoran, 40 Fort Hill avenue, printer; Harry M. Gumb, 14 Fowle street, granite dealer; Patrick Fitzgibbon, 237 Gorham street, shoe dealer.

River Road Hearing Several minor petitions were properly referred and notice of a hearing before the committee on ways and means at the state house on the bill providing for the improvement of a highway along the northerly bank of Merrimack river was read. The hearing will be held Tuesday, May 14, at 10 a. m.

Board of Health Loan The city clerk was instructed to give the necessary notice of an order to borrow $35,000 for a board of health stable, a 30 year loan.

Tax Collection There was an order appropriating $69.28 to pay for special collection of taxes. Alderman Barrett thought the bill should be paid out of the city treasurer's fund. It was finally voted to authorize the commissioner of finance to pay the bill.

Expert Rex and the $49,000 By request of Alderman Brown he ordered to transfer the Huntington hall money, so called, from the city treasury to the bank was taken up, and Mr. Brown asked Mr. Rex a few questions. "How much money was there on hand the first of the year?" asked Mr. Brown.

"One hundred fifty-four thousand," answered Mr. Rex. "Was the Huntington hall money represented in that amount?"

"It was not," Mr. Rex said that $126,604.42 of the $154,000 was balance of loans for street paving, Shedd park, new reservoir, etc.

"I think it is generally admitted by everybody in Lowell," said Mr. Rex, "that the receipts of the water department cannot be transferred to any other department and there has been interest accruing from month to month for which the water department should have been given credit but was not."

"The water department accounts should be kept separate and the general manner of keeping the city's accounts should be changed. Your system is not up to date."

"I suppose," said Alderman Cummings, "that interest on borrowed money should be credited to the department for which it was borrowed?"

"Yes, that is so," said Mr. Rex. "Take the loans that were made last year," said Mr. Rex, "or any money borrowed for a specific purpose cannot be used for any other purpose."

"The people who loan the money," said Alderman Cummings, "tell us that we must not specify exactly what the money is to be used for. We want to borrow money for street improvements and the banks don't want us to name the streets in the loan order."

"That is all right," said Mr. Rex. "What you want to do is to borrow $50,000, or whatever is the amount, for street improvement, and use it as you see fit."

"That would enable the commissioner in charge of the streets to construct new streets and do with the money."

BOSSSES WITH TAFT, SAYS ROOSEVELT

Former President Writes a Strong Letter Attacking President Taft's Attitude

He Tells Why He Entered the Contest and Says Taft Cannot Win the Republican Nomination for President

NEW YORK, May 10.—The Roosevelt committee today gave out the following copy of a letter from Col. Theodore Roosevelt to R. A. Caswell of Minneapolis:

"New York, May 10, 1912. Hon. R. A. Caswell,

"Chairman of the Roosevelt committee and clerk of the supreme court."

"Minneapolis, Minn. I wish it had been possible for me to go again to Minnesota. Unfortunately it is physically impossible. Nine states have now held presidential primaries, or their equivalent—North Dakota, Wisconsin, Nebraska, Oregon, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Maryland, Illinois and Pennsylvania."

"These states, the only ones in which there has been a free chance for the expression of the popular will, are to be represented by 256 delegates in the Chicago convention. Forty of these delegates are instructed for President Taft and 216 are against him. He has carried but two of the nine states—New Hampshire and Massachusetts—while in Massachusetts the Roosevelt delegates at-large were elected by over twice the majority which Mr. Taft obtained on preferential vote."

"In Maryland the majority against Mr. Taft was about the same, proportionately, as the majorities for him in Massachusetts and New Hampshire. In the other seven states the majorities against him range from two to one to twenty to one. In all the states together about three out of every four of the republicans who voted at the primaries were against Mr. Taft."

"If primaries could be held in all the states there would undoubtedly be no substantial variation from these figures and Mr. Taft could by no possibility have 200 votes in the Chicago convention. Mr. Taft's chance of re-nomination lies solely in securing at Chicago delegates who will misrepresent the will of the people. He can get these delegates not in the primary states but in the convention states where delegates are chosen under the old system and even in those states he can only get them where the state is ruled by a boss. After a prolonged experience of me as president practically all of the big bosses in the republican party dislike me so heartily that they opposed Mr. Taft's nomination because I favored it. They were afraid that Mr. Taft would give them the same kind of trouble that I had given them. After three years and a half experience of Mr. Taft since he has been elected these men turn around and favor his re-nomination. They were opposed to me four years ago and they are opposed to me now. They were opposed to Mr. Taft four years ago when they had not tried him as president and they heartily support him now. These men include, for

HOUSEKEEPING SCHOOLS

for Young Girls

The need for training schools for servants is by no means such a crying one as that of housewifery for mistresses. If every girl on leaving school were to go through a course of practical household training she would then have some idea of how to manage a home of her own. It would enable her both to teach inefficient servants and to detect waste, and while materially decreasing expenses she would be in a position to add greatly to the comfort and well being of the members of her household.

Every girl, no matter what her social status, should know all about house-keeping, from cleaning a saucer to darning the finest household linen. In the days of long ago there lived a great lady who had inherited vast possessions, but owing to her general incompetence and want of knowledge she soon discovered that she was being cheated on all sides. Her house was in confusion, her lands neglected, and her stock rapidly became a source of loss instead of profit. In her distress she consulted a friend, who told her to visit daily not only every room of her mansion, but also every shed and stable on her farms. She was to bow to each of their four corners, notice what she saw and correct what she knew to be wrong.

She obeyed and very shortly came to tell the result of her obedience. She had discovered which of her servants were dishonest and had replaced them with those who could be trusted. She had absorbed household knowledge almost unconsciously. She now knew how things ought to be done, and in her daily tour of inspection she detected any carelessness or neglect and ordered it to be rectified.

SIMPLE, BUT ATTRACTIVE

The strong contrast of white collar and cuffs and black velvet bands with this green linen frock is very Parisian and chic. The design is exceedingly simple, but is made distinctive by its effective trimmings. The eyelet embrodery collar and cuffs are detachable and the velvet bands may be slipped out of the white crocheted rings when the frock is laundered. White socks are worn with childish buttoned strap slippers.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

An entirely new program of the latest photo-plays and songs was offered at the Opera House yesterday afternoon and evening at the mid-week change of bill at this theatre. One of the feature photo-plays for the last three days of the week is a fine bio-graphic picture of an aquatic nature entitled "Out of the Deep," a picture full of dramatic action and with a pretty love story. Pirates, buried treasures, a trip to the bottom of the sea and a diving suit, are some of the interesting things that figure in the telling, and as presented by this company's excellent company of actors it is as interesting as a little drama as could well be imagined. Another picture that is especially well done is that of "Branchy Billy and the Bonnets" staged by the Reschay company with the popular actor, M. G. Anderson in the role of "Billy." This is a clean and clever western drama with many exciting incidents. Other new pictures that were seen are "Get the Money," a laughable comedy, an interesting travel film of scenes on the Nile, another comedy entitled "The Great Diamond Robbery," and a dramatic story called "His Wife's Mother." The Manhattan quartet made an entire change in their repertoire of songs and the several selections rendered were repeated again this afternoon and evening and tomorrow. Sunday an entire change of bill will be given. Tonight is another night at the Opera House and a big program of laughable features will be seen in addition to the regular performance. Prices are five and ten cents, all seats free.

KEITH'S LOWELL THEATRE

The winter season at Keith's suspension with the close of the week until September and to make the closing week memorable Manager Stevens has procured an exceptionally strong bill which no lover of high class vaudeville can afford to miss. singlers of vocal and personal charm combined. "Swat" Milligan, the roaring baseball comedy is a whole performance in itself and it is cleverly acted by Vienna Bolton, Billy Carey and company. It is a fan don't miss it. Niblo and Holly are a pair of clever black face comedians. Niblo is a funny, eccentric dancer. Gordon and Warren present a pleasing comedy sketch with a lot of real life in it. Entitled "Going Back to Mother," Jack Murphy can certainly extract music from the telephone and his act is a big hit. Rose and Montrose, have a most pleasing nursery act which they close with a musical feature on concertina and piano. Mr. Rose making a great hit with his operatic selections on the humble concertina. The Wartburg brothers are double foot dancers who while juggling with their pedal exercisers use their hands to play the piano and guitar. Then there are the pictures.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

For an act that is full of thrills, don't fail to see the Flying Henrys this week at the Academy of Music. They do everything that the other fellows do and then some more. The balance of the show consists of Sauts & Van Allen, and Alice Melvin, a shining comedienne who, who is exceedingly well known locally and who knows how to put over songs in a very fetching manner. The pictures are extra good, especially the Kalem war picture. On Sunday, Rose McDermott and her M. L. Bachelor girls will have a brand new stunt entitled "The Jungle Maid" and while the song sheet of last Sunday was an extra large success, it is bound to be eclipsed by this new one.

Next week the "Hottest Coon in Dixie"

Co. will have the boards.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

The photo-plays for the last three days of the week include an excellent series of picture portrayals of the steamer Titanic on her departure from Southampton and other interesting views of the rescue ship Carpathia as she entered New York harbor with 769 or more passengers of the Titanic who were picked up in the life boats. The views are the first of their kind shown in fixed parts and no doubt will be of unusual interest to all. The other pictures will be in keeping with the high standard of entertainment provided by the entire bill.

The Temple Players, assisted by Miss Grace Hawthorne, soprano soloist, presenting "Popular Week," are among the best producers of high-class musical comedy that have been seen on a local stage in seasons. The act introduces many of the choicest selections taken from the musical world, and all are given with a snap and finish that's truly enjoyable.

Leo Whalen, politico entertainer, and Faulett, contortionist, are other contributors. Miss Alice Jenkins, the week's vocalist, is also exceptionally pleasing.

Supper hour matinees, given between the hours of 5.30 and 7.30 o'clock each evening, are just the thing for those who are unable to attend the regular afternoon or evening performances. Those wishing to have their favorite seats reserved for them from week to week should place their names on the subscription list. It costs no more.

A Few New Recipes

of Good Things to Eat

Macaroni Napoli.—Cut four thin slices of bacon into small pieces, fry and strain off the hot fat. Set into a saucepan. Add three-fourths of a can of tomatoes, one sliced onion, one-fourth teaspoonful each of mace and allspice, one-eighth teaspoonful of cayenne and a bit of bay leaf. Bring to the boiling point, simmer one hour and season with salt and pepper. Add cooked macaroni or spaghetti cut into two inch strips (of which there should be two cupsful) and cook until the macaroni is thoroughly heated. Serve very hot.

Creamed Chicken Fricassee.—Cut a fine well cleaned chicken of from three to four pounds into ten pieces, put them into a large saucepan of boiling water for three minutes, then drain into a colander and instantly plunge into cold water, letting them remain five minutes. Take out the chicken, place in a clean saucepan over the fire, cover with boiling water, add one heaping teaspoonful of salt, two white onions and a bunch of herbs. Cover and boil slowly until tender. Drain off the broth and strain it. Melt two ounces of butter in a saucepan, add two heaping teaspoonfuls of flour, stir and cook two minutes, add the chicken broth and half a can of mushrooms, remove all fat from the sauce and add more salt if necessary. Mix the yolks of three eggs with half pint of cream, add it slowly to the gravy, and, lastly, the juice of a lemon. Arrange the chicken on a hot dish, pour over the gravy, lay the mushrooms in clusters around and garnish with sprigs of parsley.

English Muffins.—One quart of flour, half a teaspoonful of salt, one-third cake of yeast, one and one-half cups of warm water. Dissolve the yeast in one-third of a cup of cold water, add salt and the warm water. Gradually stir in the flour. Beat thoroughly, cover and let it rise in a warm place until spongy, which will be about five hours. Then shape the dough on a floured board into balls twice the size of an egg and flatten them to one-third of an inch thick. Set on a warm griddle that has been slightly greased and place on the back of the stove to rise slowly. As soon as they begin to rise a little draw them forward and cook slowly, turning often. They should take about twenty minutes to raise and about fifteen to bake. Tear them apart and butter while hot.

Strawberry cocktail.—Cut the strawberries into slices and cover them with the juice of an orange and let them stand until serving time. Put them into the glasses with enough powdered sugar to sweet them and a tablespoonful of shaved ice. Serve in cocktail glasses.

FOR RETURNING STOCK CERTIFICATES VALUED AT $501,000

NEW YORK, May 10.—As a reward for his honesty in returning stock certificates valued at $501,000 which he found yesterday in Exchange place, James Dowd, a messenger boy, 13 years old, who is employed by a Wall street news agency, was given 25 cents. The certificates were the property of a Broad street brokerage firm.

SPRING HOUSECLEANING HINT

With the spring housecleaning going on many women who take care of their own homes will find it necessary to turn their carpets about into different positions in a room before laying them again. Perhaps the carpets will have to be made over, ripped in the seams and turned about to meet the needs of the readjustment. If this is the case use a sharp penknife or a small paring knife with a sharp edge. Turning the carpet on the wrong side so the seams are exposed, cut the stitches exactly between the seam, taking care not to cut the carpet. After the breadths have been turned about they must be sewed together again. First pick out all the threads from each side of the seams, then lay the breadths together, right side to right side, and sew with waxed carpet thread, using a long, heavy needle which comes for the purpose. The stitch most commonly used is the simple over and over stitch. Stitches should not be taken too close together and should not be drawn tight. Just draw them so they will be firm and allow the seam to lie flat when the carpet is laid on the floor. Some persons prefer the cross or cat stitch for sewing ingrain carpets, but the easiest and quickest is to use the over and over stitch. Old carpets that have outlived their usefulness as entire floor coverings may be converted into useful rugs by ripping up each breadth, selecting the best parts and sewing them together, to make as large a rug as possible with the usable carpet. The ends of these carpet rugs may be bound with stout cloth or finished with fringe that matches the predominating color in the carpet. A housekeeper who is forced to economize in every possible way made three good sized rugs from an old Brussels carpet. The nap was so worn from the right side that she found it almost worthless, so she turned the carpet wrong side up, making it into rugs, then applied mahogany stain to them, making them a rich red brown color that harmonized well with the other furnishings of the room.

ITCHING RASH LIKE RINGWORMS

On Face and Arm in Scaly Masses, Pained and Burned. Got One Cake Cuticura Soap and Box Cuticura Ointment. Soon Entirely Well.

115 Pleasant St., Gloucester, Mass.—"About five years ago a rash began coming on my face and arm. It was itching and painful and used to burn. Every time I scratched it, it would spread into circles like ringworms. My face and arms were in scaly masses and the skin was rough and red. It would keep me up nights. I tried several remedies but they did no good. Then I got one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment. I washed the sores and put the Cuticura Ointment on it and soon it was entirely well and it never came back." (Signed) Miss Viola Richardson, Nov. 16, 1911.

ONLY CUTICURA SOAP FOR BABY

Never Had a Sore and Does Not Chafe. Redondo Beach, Calif.—"I have always used Cuticura Soap and no other for my baby and he has never had a sore of any kind. He does not even chafe as most babies do. I feel that it is all owing to Cuticura Soap for he is fine and healthy, and when five months old won a prize in a baby contest. It makes my heart ache to go into so many homes and see a sweet faced baby with the whole top of its head a solid mass of scurf, caused by the use of poor soap. I always recommend Cuticura, and have since out of ten the next time I see the mother she says 'Oh, I am so glad you told me of Cuticura.'" (Signed) Mrs. O. A. Feiby, Jan. 15, 1911.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold everywhere. Sample of each mailed free. Address, "Cuticura," Dept. T, Boston. Tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap 854742g Stick.

Total loan balances, $125,000.42

Huntington Hall Money Gone
By subtracting the total loan balance from the amount of cash on hand the first of the year, a balance of $27,395.58 remained and as that would not cover the Huntington hall fund, $48,000, it could not be said that the Huntington hall money was in the possession of the city.

Nesmith Fund Also Gone
Mr. Rex called the council's attention to the fact that the Nesmith fund, like the Huntington hall fund, has been paid into the general treasury fund and spent for other purposes.

"What would you have done with the Huntington hall fund if you had been the city treasurer?" asked Mr. Cummings.

"I would have put it in the bank and would have kept it intact as provided for by the original order. It was the city treasurer's duty to do that," said Mr. Rex.

Treasurer Stiles' Statement

City Treasurer Stiles said he had had no notice that the Huntington hall fund was to have been kept intact.

"That is one of the many troubles existing. There is not the proper business intercourse between departments and the proper notices are not served," said Mr. Rex.

The amount of the Nesmith fund was about $35,000.

"If every tax that is collected under the law should be paid tomorrow how much would it represent?" asked Ald. Brown.

"About $300,000," replied Treasurer Stiles.

"Then we have an actual deficit of over $200,000," said Ald. Brown, "and we ought to go before the legislature for permission to borrow $250,000 beyond the debt limit."

The $700,000 Note

"The city of Lowell has a note for $700,000 coming due July 1," said Ald. Barrett, "and if we only get permission to borrow $250,000 where are we going to get the rest of the money?"

Before the question was answered Mr. Barrett said:

"Mr. Rex, what is your opinion in this matter of the $700,000?"

"Go to the legislature and borrow it," said Mr. Rex.

A copy of the petition to the legislature for permission to borrow $700,000 was submitted to Mr. Rex and he believed it to be properly and carefully prepared.

"If we were to vote this afternoon to build a public hall at a cost of $150,000, would we have the Huntington hall fund, the $48,000, to start with?" asked Alderman Cummings.

"No, sir, you would not," replied Mr. Rex.

If the Legislature Refuses?
"What would we do if the legislature should refuse to allow us to borrow the $700,000?" asked Alderman Cummings.

"Let the banks sue the city for judgment and the legislature will issue an act for a special tax on the taxpayers of the city to meet the obligation. That's the only way out, that I can see," said Mr. Rex.

Mr. Rex, replying to a question by Alderman Barrett, said that the Huntington hall money should not be referred to as $48,000, but as $48,000 plus the interest.

"You don't understand that we are under any obligation to return that $48,000," said Alderman Cummings.

"The money belongs to the city and you would have no right to go to the legislature and ask to borrow to replace it," said Mr. Rex.

System is Poor

Mr. Rex referred again to the poor system of tax collection in Lowell. He said it was all right to be lenient with the people who owe money, if it's your own money, but when it's somebody else's money it's a different proposition.

Mayor O'Donnell asked Mr. Rex if he would like to demonstrate to the council on the blackboard that the $48,000, known as the Huntington hall money, existed in name only.

|----------------------------|--------------|
| Loan balances | $125,000.42 |
| Water interest (bank) | 10,000.00 |
| Thomas Nesmith fund | 25,000.00 |
| Total obligations | 160,000.42 |
| Cash balance Dec. 31, 1911 | 134,523.60 |
| | $ 25,476.82 |

"Where is the $10,000, Huntington hall money to be called?" said Alderman Brown, as he examined the blackboard.

"It isn't there," said Mr. Rex.

"Then what do you say of the expenditure of it?" queried Alderman Brown.

"Whoever spent it is guilty of misfeasance," replied Mr. Rex.

"Who would be responsible—would it be the treasurer?" said the alderman.

"It is not for me to say who is guilty," said Mr. Rex.

"If the auditor approves bills that are charged up against a fund that is to be kept intact, isn't he guilty of misfeasance?" asked Alderman Cummings.

FOOLISH ADMINISTRATION

"What does misfeasance mean?" was asked.

"Foolish administration," said Mr. Rex, laughingly.

"A new meaning and a good one," said Alderman Cummings.

Next Time You Pass

There is no divided authority between the auditor and treasurer and when it comes to the point where money is called for it will be the duty of the auditor to advise as to whether or not the city can afford it. The auditor will keep the municipal council posted.

Ald. Brown said that heads of departments under the new charter are only figureheads.

"Then let them all go," said the mayor. "Your statement is ridiculous," Mr. Brown.

"There's a whole lot of them that might be let go," said Alderman Brown.

"I have none that I want to let go," said Alderman Cummings.

"Nor I," chimed Messrs. Barrett and Donnelly.

Mr. Rex, in reply to a question by Alderman Barrett, said he could make other suggestions than those contained in his report, but he said the suggestions would have to be worked out in order to ascertain if they are practical.

Sunburned Kiddies need not suffer. Neither should grown-ups.

With winter over, the skin is very tender to the rays of a summer sun. The arms, the back of the neck, the cheeks, turn red and peel and crack and hurt like thunder!

Here's Something Soothing for Sunburn

Take your bottle of Toilettine that you should always keep in the house, and apply it freely wherever there is a sunburn. Rub it into the skin and the pain will stop. When you treat your sunburn with Toilettine you can wear a collar on your neck—you can roll down your cuffs, and your hat won't chafe your forehead. Sunburn isn't so bad after all if you use Toilettine.

Toilettine isn't for sunburn alone. It's for all such discomforts as chapped hands and face—fue for a cracked lip—heating to a cut, scald or burn, and very pleasant on the face while shaving and afterward.

Chilblains, sores and eczema, and all the skin eruptions that people have are benefited by Toilettine. If you want us to give you a free sample to prove this, we'll be glad to do it. Drop a postal card to us today and

After that is gone you will want more. Any druggist will sell it to you for 25c for a full-sized bottle—and give you your money back if Toilettine doesn't do what we claim for it. That's a good guaranty.

Another Addition To the Riker-Jaynes Drug Stores

In Boston we have just opened the 71st Riker-Jaynes Drug Store. As with all our new stores, business came with a rush the moment the doors were opened. There is a great sense of satisfaction to us in this. No other drug concern could get the same ready response, and we feel amply repaid by this demonstration for our 60 years of drug store service in New England and New York.

Your only interest in this occasion lies in the fact that it adds another link to the strong chain of stores, which has been responsible for bringing the prices on drug store goods in your city down to their present level.

This addition will naturally add to the strength of our purchasing power and will enable us to offer, even better values in drug store goods than we have ever before offered.

By Highland Council,
Royal Arcanum

Highland hall in Branch street was the scene of an enjoyable affair last night, the occasion being a jollification of the past regents of the various councils of the Royal Arcanum of this city and Billerica, the past regents of Highland council acting as hosts. There were 43 past regents present and there were speeches by prominent members of the order, a banquet was served and an entertainment followed. There were present also, a number of invited guests.

It was shortly after eight o'clock

when the meeting was called to order and addresses were made by Grand Regent Ernest P. Hobson of Palmer, Mass., supreme trustee John J. Hogan; Past Regent A. G. Walsh; past regent, Fred E. Jones, and Vice Regent M. J. Sullivan, the latter of Industry council. Mr. Sullivan presented the whist trophy to Highland council, having been won by Industry council a year ago. In the course of his remarks, Mr. Sullivan made some interesting comments on the relative abilities of the whist players of the three councils in the league. The roll call was read, past regents of various councils responding as their names were called by Regent Pearl Kinney of Highland council.

An excellent menu was discussed for about an hour and then an entertainment was given. Among those who participated were the Melody Lane Girls and Niblo & Reilly from Keith's theatre, E. M. Biron acting as accompanist.

MRS. LUCIA A. MEAD ADDRESSED TEACHERS

On Educational Aspects
of Peace Movement

A very interesting lecture on "Educational Aspects of the Peace Movement" was given before the city teachers by Mrs. Lucia Ames Mead. The address was delivered in the high school hall and was largely attended.

When we have once rid the world of international war, and set free the billions of dollars annually that are going to waste, we are going to do for education and reform of all kinds, what we have never been able to do. Just as truly as chattel slavery was abolished in the last century, she believed, the next century is going to see the cessation of war between nations. When we teach the children to sing "Then conquer we must, When our cause is just," we are teaching them something that rhymes, but it is not true. We do not conquer when our cause is just, unless we have the most men, the most money or the best strategic position.

SUES FOR $10,000

WOMAN BEGINS ACTION AGAINST PROPRIETOR OF LAUNDRY

Victoria Kiernan has brought suit against Theodore Skaperdas, proprietor of the Nausika steam laundry, an action of tort, to recover $10,000 for alleged injuries received. The papers in the suit have been filed at East Cambridge. The plaintiff, in her declaration, states that while she was in the employ of the defendant she was forcing the collender or mangle and owing to improper guards her hand was caught in the machine and injured so that she is unable to use it.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

The regular meeting of Washington commanders, U. O. P. E., was held last night in Veritas hall in Branch street. There was a large attendance despite the inclemency of the weather and considerable routine business was transacted. One application was received, balloted for and elected. It was announced that Lady Currier of Haverhill had been appointed deputy grand commander for the ensuing year. Under good of the order Grand Treasurer Arthur L. Gray and others spoke. Mrs. Spaulding gave a recitation, and Miss Ethel French gave a vocal selection.

The first part of the evening an excellent concert program was given by Broderick's orchestra. General dancing was then started and continued until midnight. Captain Walter Jeyes was general manager and he was assisted by an efficient corps of aids.

WARNING

Ladies We leave our position and success here in Lowell—already firmly established by your generous patronage—and complete satisfaction—ABSOLUTELY IN YOUR HANDS. Success always has imitators. When we decided to sell direct to the public in many sections of the country, others attempted to follow us—but like all imitations—THE IMITATION WAS AND IS WEAK. We will, no doubt, be followed here by those who will throw out baits in the way of "a few specials" and even go so far as to call themselves "wholesalers"—but the facts of the case are that they are not serious competitors. We use this prominent space in this announcement to forewarn you of our imitators. We leave our business in your hands, knowing full well that your good judgment will dictate that the wholesale prices in these rooms are without competition.

SECRETARY KNOX ATTACKS ROOSEVELT

Says That He is "Man of Whims"

LOS ANGELES, May 10.—In a speech here last night before the Southern California Taft association, Secretary of State Knox made his first

Zemo for Dandruff

political utterance since his return from Central America.

He defended President Taft against the criticisms by Col. Roosevelt and attacked the colonel as a man "prompted by whims" of "imperious ambitions, vanities and mysterious antipathies" and as "one who would break the rule of his party and his country and his own word to gain the seat of a friend."

"The new nationalism" of Colonel Roosevelt was termed by Secretary Knox "as violent an assault upon the autonomy of the state as the new nationalism of 1861 was upon the integrity of the Union."

In refutation of Col. Roosevelt's claim that President Taft was unfit for reelection, Mr. Knox cited the colonel's language as the "true friend of reform, the true foe of abuses."

Declaring that "this is perhaps one of the most extraordinary anti-convention campaigns within the history of the party," Mr. Knox said that the effort so far "has been to confuse the situation by dragging in issues with which the states alone are concerned."

Mr. Knox then summarized and compared the respective claims to reform achievements by Col. Roosevelt and President Taft, and asserted that the president's accomplishments far outweigh those of his predecessor.

"If Mr. Roosevelt," he said, "claims that President Taft is seeking or has the support of the men who for years have stood for leadership in the republican party and guided its columns to victory, President Taft can reply that Mr. Roosevelt sought and had their support in his campaign in 1904 and that in many places now his interests are in the hands of rejected political bosses whose political offenses 'smell to heaven.'"

ABOUT PICTURES

Pictures are often neglected and allowed to get dull and faded from want of a little attention. If they are engravings or water colors, as soon as any deposit of dust is seen to have worked itself through the frame the picture should be carefully taken out and cleaned by rubbing a piece of soft bread and rubbing it over the surface of the picture. This will remove all dust and any other mark that has been made on the print.

Oil paintings should be carefully sponged with cold water and polished with a soft silk cloth.

Valuable oils should be protected with glass. This has all the good effect of varnish without any of its disadvantages.

When choosing pictures, if you have no artistic sense, have some artistic friend or an artist go with you to buy. Also follow this rule when hanging the paintings. It will pay in the end for pictures carefully arranged will mar the beauty of an otherwise handsomely furnished room.

SENATE SUSTAINS GOVERNOR'S VETO

Of Spanish War Vet's Preference Bill

BOSTON, May 10.—The governor's veto of the Spanish war veterans' 5 per cent. civil service preference bill was sustained yesterday afternoon, but by the narrowest possible margin. Had not Pres. Greenwood voted in the negative the bill would have been carried over the veto by the requisite two-thirds vote.

Before the president had his name called the vote stood 26 for the bill and 12 for the veto. Greenwood's vote in the negative settled the question and the veto was sustained.

The action was taken after a very brief discussion, during which McCarthy of Marlboro urged the passage of the measure over the veto and Mulligan spoke against such action.

MUST OBTAIN PERMIT TO BURN RUBBISH

Chief Hosmer Receives Notice From Chief Forester Rane on the Matter

Owing to the recent conviction in police court of a resident of Dracut for setting a fire on sprout land, the people of Lowell and the surrounding towns are anxious to learn the purport of the law. The original act was

Olive Oil in the Household

Next to bread, there is no one article of food which has so much value as pure olive oil. It is so easily digested that it can and should be used with nearly all our foods. Pompeian Olive Oil, from the finest groves in Italy, not chemically treated or adulterated in any way, has such a sweet nutty taste that it improves the taste of foods and at the same time gives to the body health and strength.

Pompeian Olive Oil when mixed with the flour used in clam soup, cream of tomato, or other thick soups, imparts a most delicious flavor. In making fish cutlets or frying fish of any kind, use Pompeian Olive Oil instead of butter or lard, and the taste will be improved one hundred per cent. Sweet potato croquettes, cold slaw, macaroni and other dishes are likewise made tastier when this oil is used. By reason of its sweet, nutty flavor, it should be used in preference to any other kind for salad dressings, especially where fruit salads are served. In scrambling eggs, a little cream and olive oil put in the frying pan gives you a dish better than anything you ever tried before. Ask your dealer for a book of Pompeian recipes, and when once you try this oil in cooking, you will never do without it.

Pompeian Olive Oil is sold by druggists and grocers. Full one-half pint cans, 25 cents; full pint cans, 50 cents; full quart cans, 90 cents.

enacted in 1908 and amended last year and according to the law at the present time a person cannot start a fire to burn rubbish between the first of March and the first of December without first receiving a permit from the proper official. In the city of Lowell, Chief E. S. Hosmer of the fire department, is the authority.

Chief Hosmer has received the following communication from Chief Forester Frank W. Rane:

Dear Sir: Permits are necessary for all fires that come within 50 feet of any building or within 200 feet of any sprout or forest land. In issuing permits it is not necessary to confine the fire to an exact date. Village rubbish and debris fires should be given from one to three days. Parties burning fallows or brush land may need a little more extension of time. State reservations, city water works departments, charitable institutions, county institutions and railroad section foremen should be granted an extension of 30 days, with the privilege of renewal providing they have complied with the law in controlling their fires.

FOR SUPERSTITIOUS PEOPLE now some ruthless person points out an English paper says: There is that there is a good deal more of the comfort for the superstitious. If you were asked to select an unlucky emblem, the motto "E Pluribus Unum" contains thirteen letters. The United States. But almost every emblem and a good deal of the history of the United States is concerned with the ominous number 13. We know, of course, that at the time of the Declaration of Independence there were thirteen states and therefore thirteen stars and stripes on the flag. But

THIRD DAY'S SESSION OF THE P. M. CONFERENCE

Rev. Mr. Singleton of Block Island,
R. I. Preached Sermon at
the Meeting Today

The third day's session of the Primitive Methodist conference, being held at the Lawrence Street church, opened this morning with several new delegates present. The session opened at 8:30 o'clock with devotional services, under the leadership of Walter Stowell. All present then joined in singing "The Story That Never Grows Old." A prayer was offered by Rev. A. Hesford, of North Tiverton, R. I. The sermon was preached by Rev. John Singleton, of Block Island, R. I.

The roll was then called, after which the minutes of yesterday's session were read and accepted. The committee on tracts reported, recommending the distribution of tracts in a larger way, as a means of reaching many who do not attend the church. The committee recommended that the pamphlet of Primitive Methodism, written by Rev. A. Humphries, be distributed. The conference accepted the report and voted unanimously to adopt the recommendation.

Rev. J. Muson, D. D., Journal agent, then read the report for the Eastern conference, showing that all bills were paid and that there is a good balance on hand. Rev. Dr. Mason was re-elected by unanimous vote.

The sub-book depot agent, Rev. J. G. Barlow, in the absence of B. R. Aconley, the agent reported on the book and publishing interests, showing a fair condition and hopeful outlook. The agent and sub-agent were unanimously re-elected for next year.

Rev. A. Humphries, John Mason and N. W. Matthews were re-elected as the book and publishing committee with Rev. J. G. Barlow, sub agent, and B. R. Aconley, agent.

The missionary secretary, Rev. T. M. Bateman, D. D., read the missionary report showing receipts amounting to $1375.67 and after all expenses and liabilities have been met, there will be a balance on hand. He reported that the work of colored missions under Rev. Dr. Overton, was fairly successful.

A resolution of condolence was passed, sympathizing with Rev. Dr. Overton, who recently lost his wife by death.

All then rose and sang a verse of "I am a Stranger Here." Quite a discussion on the suggestion of forming a circuit of Silver Hook, a suburb of Providence and including Olneyville and Centredale was held.

The meeting adjourned with prayer at noon, after several announcements were made.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock another business session was held at which Rev. N. W. Matthews presided. At 3 o'clock the services included a discussion of the day. The temperance report was read. The address was given by Rev. Alfred King-Colett.

Tonight at 7:30 o'clock there will be a missionary meeting, Chairman Edward H. Thatcher to preside.

Last Night's Session

Rev. John Mason's address at the Primitive Methodist conference at the Lawrence Street church yesterday afternoon was very interesting. He spoke on "Ministerial Education."

A very lengthy and interesting discussion then took place on the presentation before the conference of the plan to raise a fund of $1600 to assist young men in their theological training. The plan was unanimously endorsed by the conference.

The first report of the stationing committee was read and it was ordered back to the committee to be finally reported on at the close of the conference.

The business session was then adjourned. The Preachers' Benevolent association met immediately after the adjournment.

The services last evening opened with devotional services, under the leadership of Rev. John Proud, M. A. After a hymn, "The Son of God Goes Forth to War," Rev. John Singleton gave the opening prayer. Rev. John T. Ullman, pastor of the church, then read the conference notices and the devotional service was closed with an anthem by the choir, "O That I Had Wings Like a Dove."

The address of the evening was given by Rev. E. Humphries, D. D., who spoke on Methodism.

PACKEY MCFARLAND

SIMPLY TOYED WITH SCOTCH CHAMPION

FALL RIVER, May 10.—Packey McFarland, the Chicago Whitehead, gave a five-round exhibition here last night against Johnny Connolly, announced as the champion of Scotland. The bout was slated to go ten rounds, but at the end of the fifth round Connolly ran out of the ring. He had been smashed all over the ring for 15 minutes and he concluded that he would not be made a mark any longer. He knew that he was out-classed and no one denied that fact. As soon as the bell rang at the end of the fifth, Connolly walked to his corner and then started to crawl through the ropes. He managed to get half-way through, when his manager caught

JUST TRY A TEN CENT BOX OF CASCARETS

Insures You for Months Against a Sick Headache, Biliousness, Constipation of a Bad Stomach

Put aside—just once—those Salts, Cathartic Pills, Castor Oils or purgative waters which merely force a passageway through the bowels, but do not thoroughly cleanse, freshen and purify these drainage or alimentary organs, and have no effect whatever on the liver and stomach. Keep your inside organs pure and fresh with Cascarets, which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the undigested, sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poisons in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have Headache, Biliousness, coated tongue, indigestion, Sour Stomach or Constipated bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Children just love to take them.

In fitting glasses I use the Cross Dynamic System. It is the only method by which the actual latent condition may be ascertained from which to prescribe exactly the right glasses. Five years successful practice and thousands of satisfied patients in this city is my guarantee to you of satisfactory service. No charge for consultation and examination.

Two Boxes of STOMACH-RITE

Cured This Woman

Dear Doctor's Daughter:
I had nervous dyspepsia for one year. I was treated by a physician, but it did me no good whatever. I was so bad at times that I became unconscious. I heard of your Stomach-Rite and took two boxes of it, and am entirely cured. Have no stomach trouble now whatever. Have now begun to take your Blood Builder to build me up. Yours,
MARY McDONALD,
57 Washington St., Quincy, Mass.

Picture of Health

Dear Doctor's Daughter:
Since taking your Stomach-Rite my oldest son, nineteen years of age, is entirely cured of severe attacks of indigestion, and has changed from a sickly, delicate-looking young man to the picture of health. Long may you live. Yours gratefully,
MRS. CHARLES E. CLARK,
643 Park Ave., Woonsocket, R. I.

GOLF SWEATERS

The newest golf sweater, modeled after the original jersey, which is drawn over the head, is the smartest garment imaginable and exceptionally becoming unless the wearer of it is excessively thin. For that sort of figure the best sweater is the one of white or light colored worsted, widely bordered with red, French blue, bright green or dark tan. This model has tight fitting musquetaire cuffs and a wide sailor collar which is deeply in front to reveal the prettily rounded throat, which not infrequently is the possession of a very slender girl.

Another golf sweater which is popular is basket woven, extends well over the hips, has contrasting stripes bordering its turned back cuffs and a low rolling shawl collar outlining its single breasted fronts. One of the same length is a closely fitted Norfolk jacket. Its natural collar, extending half-way down the back, has star decorated corners, and on the upper arm portion of the left sleeve an anchor is embroidered.

Golf caps are somewhat smaller in size than were the models brought out last autumn, have a lower crown and a brim that rolls boldly. They are knitted on large needles so that the coarse meshes shall allow the air to reach the hair and prevent it from falling out because of getting overheated.

Golf gloves of white netted silk have perforated palms and inside fingers of natural colored chamois and fasten with heavy brass or white composition clasps attached to an inch wide stitched bracelet band of the chamois lined netted silk. Gold shoes have Blucher straps of black or tan leather, heavy projecting soles and wide, flat heels. Their extra high tops of white canvas are less heating than are those of thick felt and prevent the ankles from spreading if the golfer is of extraordinary weight.

Haverhill Women Praise Courtney and Spring

HAVERHILL, May 10.—Frank Courtney, the right fielder of the Haverhill New England League nine, and Michael Spring of Lowell, a former catcher of the local club, yesterday received a letter from Mrs. Mary Miner and her daughter, Miss Cora Miner, a school teacher, in which the two women thanked the two baseball players for their courage in stopping a runaway on Winter street Wednesday.

Mrs. Miner and her daughter, who live on Broadway, were driving down Winter street and when near Primrose the horse stumbled and fell. Getting up quickly, the animal bolted down the hill. Near Harrison street the carriage slewed and Mrs. Miner pitched forward, being rendered semi-conscious by striking the dasher.

Miss Miner, realizing the danger, dropped the reins and seized her mother, holding her in the carriage and preventing her from falling out.

Courtney and Spring were standing on the sidewalk near Hale street and seeing the runaway and the two women helpless in the carriage they rushed out into the street, Courtney being struck by the shaft. Spring ran along with the animal and finally brought him to a halt, while Courtney assisted the two women by leaping into the carriage and grabbing them.

REPORT ON RICHESON NOT YET RECEIVED

Former Pastor Still in County Jail

COUNSEL MORSE SEES PRISONER

No Special Session of Council Called

BOSTON, May 10.—Had the usual procedure been followed, Clarence V. T. Richeson, the murderer of Miss Ayla Lincoln, would have awakened today in a cell in the state close to the chamber where he is condemned to die during the week of May 15th but postponement of executive action pending reports of his sanity by certain experts has delayed his transfer from the county jail.

Gov. Foss stated today that he had not heard from the alienists employed to examine Richeson and until those reports were in hand he would take no action in the case. Several days ago the governor requested Sheriff John Quinn, the custodian of Richeson, not to be hasty in transferring the former minister to the care of Warden Bridges at the state prison. Sheriffs and wardens usually follow the suggestions of the governor and at noon today Richeson was still in jail under close watch by a bailiff and a prison attendant.

Copies of the morning papers are furnished Richeson and his counsel, William A. Morse, sees him daily. It is expected that the governor will receive the reports of the alienists by tomorrow and that he will then have sufficient data on which to make up his mind whether he will submit the case to the executive council for action on commutation of the death sentence. No special session of the council has been called and the next regular meeting is on Wednesday, four days before the day set for the execution.

STAINS

AXLE grease, oil and grime, on cloth or on woodwork, are readily removed with Carbonol. Carbonol is a powerful liquid derived from coal tar. It dissolves grease and kills germs. It will remove the most obstinate stains which the ordinary cleaning and dyeing establishments give up as hopeless. It will make floors and woodwork look cleaner than you will ever get them with ordinary scrubbing.

Carbonol is a powerful disinfectant. If you spray it on garbage, for example, the odor of the garbage will immediately disappear and flies will keep away.

It will destroy musty smells in dark corners and closets.

As an antiseptic for personal use, it will relieve tender aching feet.

Use Carbonol wherever you need a powerful, harmless cleanser to dissolve grease, kill germs and to suppress odors.

Funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker Joseph Albert.

THE SUFFRAGETTES

WANT WOMAN'S POLICE FORCE FOR NEXT PARADE

NEW YORK, May 10.—Suffragettes who have been criticizing the police protection afforded them in connection with their big parade last week have submitted to Commissioner Waldo a plan for a woman's police force for the suffrage parade next year. This plan, they think, will do away with the conditions against which the women marchers complained after the demonstration this year. If the scheme is carried out 5,000 women will be organized to police the parade. The women officers would be dressed in white tailor made suits with white or black helmets and would wear a shield in red, white and blue enamel bearing the words "Woman Suffrage Police."

A meeting of the Children of Mary sodality of the Sacred Heart parish will be held after the May devotions in the church this evening. The meeting will take place in the school hall and it is expected that all the members will be present, as important business will be transacted including arrangements for the May 29th festival to be held under the auspices of the sodality.

LYONS GUILTY OF LARCENY ORDERED TO PAY $25 FINE

Cases of Two Strikers Who Were Charged With Intimidation Were Continued

William Lyons appeared in police court this morning to answer to a complaint charging him with the larceny of a gold ring, several gold pins and a shirt, the property of Michael Zyznowski. He entered a plea of guilty and after a hearing he was found guilty and a fine of $25 was imposed.

According to the testimony offered the two men worked on a farm belonging to George B. Greenwood and the defendant rifled the complainant's trunk and then went to Boston where he was arrested by officers of station 1. Officer Martin Conway of Billerica went to Boston yesterday and returned with the man late in the afternoon.

Assault and Battery

Sergio Correia was charged with assault and battery on Christos Nicholas but by agreement of counsel the case was continued until Monday morning. It is alleged that the defendant entered the room of the complainant and then left. Subsequently he returned and it is said again assaulted the boy.

Drunken Offenders

George H. Whitney who resides in Westford was before the court this morning. He admitted that he was guilty of drunkenness but he was very penitent and wished to be given a chance to do better in the future, but the court decided that he had had enough of chances and a sentence to the state farm was imposed. He appealed.

Frank Levesque was sentenced to four months in jail and James M. Dague was given a sentence of one month to the same institution. Thomas Nolan was fined $5. There were several releases.

Intimidation Charged

Louis Ramos and Christos Prasas were in police court this morning on a complaint charging them with intimidating an employee of a corporation, it being alleged that they tried to prevent Thomas Spanos from going to work in the Merrimack mills. At the request of counsel the case was continued for one week.

The case of Christos Prasas charged with intimidating George Cousopoulos and Ellen Paulos was continued until the same date.

Juvenile Session

James Batho, John Butler and Raymond Grimshaw, three boys, who last week mounted the roof of the Merrimack Square theatre and ripped lead off the building, were brought before Judge Pickman in the juvenile session of the police court this morning. They were charged with being delinquents and after the cases had been heard and they were found guilty they were placed on probation until June 7.

Political Interest is Centered on Ohio, Where Roosevelt and Taft are Dividing Attention With Others

COLUMBUS, O., May 10.—The political pot is certainly boiling just now in Ohio, and with Taft, Roosevelt, Bryan, Harmon and La Follette acting as stokers during the last week of the primary campaign it will keep on bubbling. It is generally conceded that President Taft must carry his own state if he is to be nominated at Chicago, and he has shown that he appreciates the importance of the situation by arranging for a zigzag journey over the state, in which he will make 100 speeches and will be heard in practically every town of more than 5000 inhabitants. Mr. Taft will not end his campaign until a few hours before the balloting begins. His last speech will be made Monday evening, May 20, at Dayton, and the next day he will vote in Cincinnati and will then start back to Washington. Colonel Roosevelt will reach this state May 14 and will begin a speech-making tour that will keep him busy until primary election day. His campaign managers have carefully mapped out his route, so that he will not waste time in territory that is hopeless or that he is certain to carry. He will devote his efforts to debatable ground. Interest in the democratic situation is centered on the contest between William Jennings Bryan and Governor Harmon. Governor Harmon will be making speeches daily during the last week of the campaign. Senator Robert M. La Follette is also making speeches in the interest of his campaign for the republican nomination for the presidency.

MAN 63 YEARS OLD

MARRIES THE WIDOW OF HIS SON

TOLEDO, May 10.—John Baird, 63, of Zanesville, a telegraph operator, married yesterday the widow of his own son, Mrs. Mary H. Baird, thirty-six. The laws of Ohio do not prohibit such a union.

"We shall be happy," says Baird, and in these words justifies his violation of biblical laws.

"Both of them shall surely be put to death. They have wrought confusion, their blood shall be upon them," says the bible.

John C. Baird says: "We can see no harm in it. I always liked my son's wife, and since his death and the demise of my first wife the affection has ripened into love."

Baird's first wife died a year ago, and his son, Warren, his present wife's first husband, died about the same time.

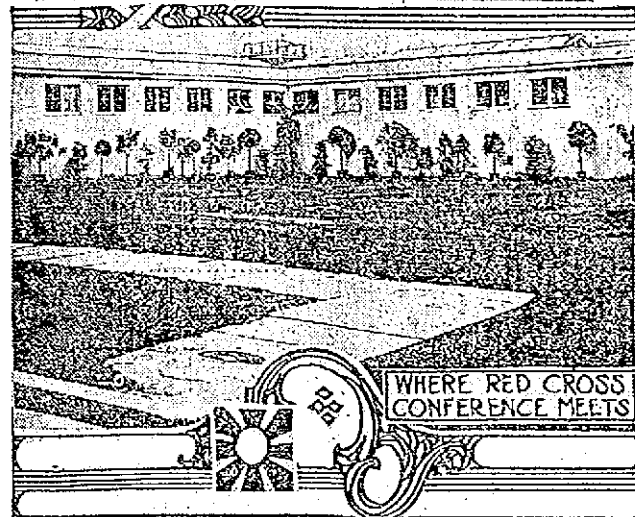

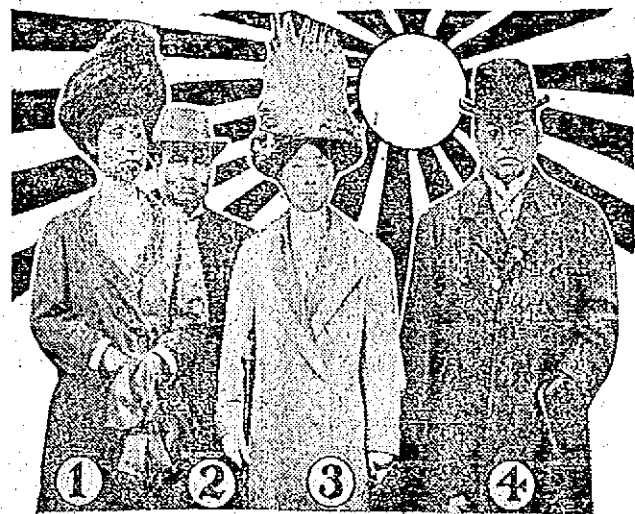

TO GROW HAIR ON A BALD HEAD

BY A SPECIALIST.

Thousands of people suffer from baldness and falling hair who, having tried nearly every advertised hair tonic and hair-grower without results, have resigned themselves to baldness and its attendant discomfort. Yet their case is not hopeless; the following simple home prescription has made hair grow after years of baldness, and is also unequalled for restoring gray hair to its original color, stopping hair from falling out and destroying the dandruff germ. It will not make the hair greasy, and can be put up by any druggist: Bay Rum, 3 ounces; Lavender de Composee, 2 ounces; Menthol Crystals, one-half drachm. If you wish it perfumed, add half to one teaspoonful of To-Kalon Perfume which unites perfectly with the other ingredients. This preparation is highly recommended by physicians and specialists, and is absolutely harmless as it contains none of the poisonous wood alcohol so frequently found in hair tonics. Do not apply to the face or where hair is not desired.

Before publication we presented this prescription to Hall & Lyon Co. of this city, and they state that they have filled it many times for their patrons who report most astonishing results from its use.

All the World is Represented at International Red Cross Conference

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The ninth International Red Cross conference, the first to be held outside of Europe, is in session in the Pan-American Union, with a number of the most prominent advocates of the Red Cross movement in the world as delegates. Japan, China, Siam, India, South Africa and all the European countries are represented by varicolored delegates assembled in the big white marble structure erected to perpetuate the fame of the twenty-one American republics, and everything seemed to point to the most interesting as well as the most complete conference ever held. Great interest is evinced in the exhibition of 200 articles presented for competition for the $9000 in prizes, the income of a fund donated by the Empress Marie Feodorovna of Russia. These articles consist of ambulances, litters, X ray apparatus for the battlefield, etc., and will be passed on by an international jury, which will award the prizes according to merit. The first prize will be $500, the second will be in two sections of $1500 each, and there will be six third prizes of $500. The Japanese delegation, as shown in the picture includes: 1, Mme. Nagasaki; 2, Baron Osawa; 3, Countess Yoshijima; 4, Count Ogasawara.

THE MEXICAN REBELS DEFEATED BY FEDERALS

Ninety Killed and Many Injured
—Mexican Central Railroad Held
by the Federal Outposts

EL PASO, Texas, May 10.—In a telegram office improvised in a box car on a desert 50 miles north of Torreon, Gen. Victoriano Huerta, commander of the federal army of northern Mexico, transmitted today by telegraph to an Associated Press representative here news of military developments of the last 24 hours. The box car stood a few miles from the town of Delmundo.

The wire line had set up direct to the federal camp, being routed from El Paso via Laredo, Texas, Monterey and

needs constant attention—you can't gargle during business hours.

MOST people consider sore throat all too lightly. They forget this annoying, painful germ infection may easily develop into more serious troubles.

You know how unsatisfactory and inconvenient it is to try to use a gargle. Not only is it a nauseating, lack-merit method, but you cannot consistently use a gargle during business or social hours.

Sore throat requires careful and constant attention—the remedial agent, in the first place, must be one that can be applied at any and all times. And more important still, it must get at the germ that lies ensconced in the deepest folds of the throat—the point of infection. This a gargle cannot do under any circumstances—at best it is a superficial relief—and sore throat requires something more effective and searching.

Formamint

is the one preparation that fully meets the requirements. Conveniently itself—take it any time, any place. The pleasant-tasting tablet, when sucked like candy, releases its powerful, yet harmless germicide, which mixes with the saliva and is carried over and around the infected membranes—hunting out the germs—no matter how deeply imbedded in the throat cavities—destroying them and putting an end to the infection.

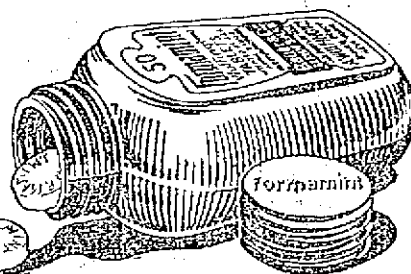

You owe it to yourself to use Formamint—not only when you have sore throat—but when you suspect you are getting it.

"There are many ways that you can save money," he said, "and I think that in a very few years you could clean up your debt."

Mr. Rex said there was one department at city hall that might be dispensed with, but he refused to name the department.

In reply to a question by Alderman Barrett, Mr. Rex said that a clerk working on books should not be asked to work more than seven hours a day. Alderman Barrett said he thought that the trouble in Lowell is that there is too much expense connected with department heads, and that too many political jobs are given for past favors.

"The increase in the administration charges of departments" is a big feature of our trouble," he said.

Mr. Rex said that men were not elected to the legislature nor to municipal councils, because of their knowledge of affairs.

"No, I don't suppose that is why we were elected," said Mr. Cummings.

"You men are working conscientiously to undo the tangles and I hope the people appreciate that fact, but you have an awful job on your hands," said Mr. Rex.

Copy of the Act

On motion of Alderman Barrett it was voted to have the mayor, commissioner of finance and city solicitor present to the legislature on Monday morning a copy of the act to authorize the city of Lowell to refund certain notes.

The act authorizing the city to borrow $700,000 was drawn up by City Solicitor Hennessy and reads as follows:

An Act to Authorize the City of Lowell to Refund Certain Notes.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Section 1. For the purpose of paying certain outstanding notes amounting to seven hundred thousand dollars, the city of Lowell is hereby authorized to borrow the said sum and to issue notes or bonds therefor. Such notes or bonds shall be for one thousand dollars each, in registered or coupon form, payable thirty-five years, in the years nineteen hundred and thirteen to nineteen hundred and thirty-three, both inclusive. The notes or bonds shall be signed by the municipal council of the city, and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding four per cent per annum. The money required to pay the interest on said notes or bonds in each year, and that part of the principal which becomes due in that year, shall be raised by taxation in the same manner in which the other expenses of the city are provided for.

Section 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Mayor O'Donnell said that Mr. Rex should be present at the hearing before the committee on cities and on motion of Ald. Barrett, who said that the hearing should be held in this city. It was voted to authorize the commissioner of finance to have Mr. Rex present at the hearing.

At 12:50 o'clock the council adjourned to tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Torreon, around about eleven eastward of more than 1,000 miles. This was necessary by the seizure of all telegraphic lines directly south of here by the rebels.

From the improvised telegraph office General Huerta talked enthusiastically of the battle to come.

Yesterday, Thursday, General Bahago completely routed 1,000 rebels at Zaragoza and Tlahuillo, both near Torreon," said General Huerta. "The rebels lost dead and many wounded while our loss was seven dead and a few wounded. The rebels were driven back in hasty flights and are pursued by cavalry under General Villa.

"On Wednesday we heard that a detachment of one thousand rebels were advancing on us and we organized a column which went by railroad under General Bahago. "Do not get excited we sent overland volunteer and regular cavalry from the forces of Villa.

"They arrived about 6 a. m. Thursday and attacked the rebels. General Bahago arrived and flanked the rebels. He had artillery and machine guns. The fight lasted six hours. We completely routed the enemy. Our losses were two killed and seven wounded.

"A telegram has just been brought to me from General Trice Aubert at Cuatro Ciénegas which says the rebel chief Salazar was completely routed and is running away towards Sierra Mojada.

Couriers from the advance guard arrived at this juncture, according to General Huerta and informed him that the federal outposts held the Mexican Central railroad up to within 12 miles of Bormejillo.

No communication was had here with the rebel front early today but the liberal officials conceded they met stubborn resistance, in the initial skirmishing.

BURGLAR PROOF DEVICE

A very simple window fastening can be arranged to give additional security against burglars. About an inch from the frame on the right of every window a small hole may be bored in the overlapping sashes, going entirely through the inner and lower sash and almost through the outer. When the window is shut a three-inch wire nail must be pushed into this hole until it is buried to the head. This nail should be snugly fitted in the hole, but capable of being easily withdrawn with the fingers. The ordinary sash lock can be pried open with the burglar's jimmy, but with the addition of the wire nail that trick is impossible.

TO MAKE A TEA TRAY

The daintiest tea tray may be fashioned from the lid of a cheese box in this manner: First sandpaper the wood until it is perfectly smooth and stain it a mahogany color. The stain may be purchased already prepared. Polish the wood with turpentine and

Attach brass handles, which may be obtained at the upholsterer's shop for a very small sum. A round, embroidered doily placed in the bottom adds to the appearance of the tray.

Boston Wholesale Millinery Company

Begs to announce to the Women of Lowell, the OPENING OF ITS LOWELL SALESROOMS Tomorrow, Saturday, May 11th, and cordially invites all to come and see a display of the

Greatest Millinery Bargains Ever Offered in This City

On this occasion will be featured complete lines of the Newest Millinery Fashions for late Spring and Summer wear—an exhibit which we believe cannot be found elsewhere in Lowell at the present. Whether you intend purchasing now or later, you should see these for authentic information as to the styles that are to be correct. Open at 8.30 a. m. Saturday, at 212 Merrimack Street.

To The Public and the Milliners:

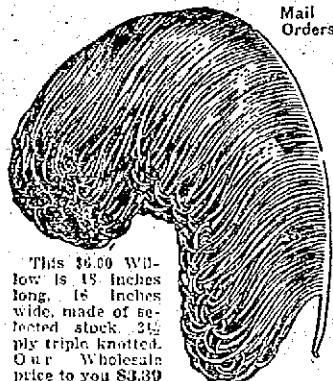

We have come here to Lowell for various reasons: We believe that in establishing a permanent salesroom at your very door we will not only increase our already large business in this section but will in addition secure a stronger foothold in Northern Massachusetts that will enable us to carry out a number of plans now projected. With the establishment of this salesroom we also do away with the usual system of selling through traveling salesmen and obviate the great selling expense which this system entails. We desire to notify all milliners that after May 15th we will have no salesmen traveling through this section and no one will be authorized to solicit patronage on our behalf.

A Unique Plan of Selling:

Under our system of selling direct at wholesale prices to the public and milliners alike, we now offer to the small milliner and consumer the opportunity to save 33 1-3 per cent. to 40 per cent. on the prevailing store prices. This important saving is made possible by the fact that we sell for cash only and have no long standing accounts or bad bills to consider in fixing our prices. Then again, we operate salesrooms in nearly all the important cities of New England and have an outlet for merchandise that enables us to buy at prices that in many instances are fully one-third lower than the largest retail houses. You can well imagine that with these advantages we are amply able to back up our claim that we save you one-third, at least, on every purchase. No secret code marks or concealed price quotations. Absolutely one price to both the milliners and the public. Exchanges made on goods returned in satisfactory condition. Refunds cheerfully made. Your money back if you are not satisfied.

IRISH HOME RULE BILL PASSES SECOND READING

Wild Enthusiasm When a Vote of 372 to 271 Was Announced Last Night

All Leaders Joined in the Final Day's Debate—
The Majority in House of Commons for the Bill Was Increased

LONDON, May 10.—The government carried the Home Rule bill on its second reading in the house of commons last night by a majority of 101, as against 94 for the first reading. The vote was 372 to 271.

It was the most largely attended house of the present parliament. Both sides had done their utmost to obtain every available vote. Mr. Balfour, former opposition leader, and Mr. Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, returned from Weymouth in order to be present. The announcement of the figures showing an increased majority occasioned enthusiastic demonstrations on the government side. The prime minister was given a great ovation on leaving the house, with his wife and daughter, by the crowd assembled outside.

John Redmond on leaving parliament with his wife, shortly after Mr. Asquith, was also loudly cheered, many Irishmen in the crowd singing "A Nation Once Again."

The bill was formally referred to a committee of the whole house, but as Home Rule and Welsh disestablishment are being taken concurrently it will now be the turn of the Welsh bill.

It is not expected the committee stage of the Home Rule bill will be reached until after Christmas and it will probably consume a couple of months even with a liberal application of the closure rules, because the opposition are preparing an endless list of amendments and will adopt every possible means to obstruct the measure.

Windup of the Debate

Premier Asquith wound up the debate for the government in a brief and forceful speech, which aroused great enthusiasm. No serious attempt, he said, had been made by the opposition to meet the argument with which he opened the discussion—the character and persistence of the Irish demand.

Had the demand been made under similar conditions by any community of their own race throughout the empire, there was not a man on either side who would not say that it was entitled to consideration.

A demand so persistent, continued the prime minister, was one which a democratic parliament in these days was bound to assent to. If the Irish vote was eliminated in the house of commons, there still would be a majority of 50 or 60 for Home Rule.

Referring to the repeals in Ulster, Mr. Asquith said that he believed the British people just and generous. They detested intolerance and persecution in any form, but they were not the people to be frightened out of what they believed to be just by language of intimidation.

The government had asked repeatedly what further safeguards were desired, but the only answer of the opposition was that they would receive from Ulster nothing but unyielding and uncompromising resistance.

In conclusion Premier Asquith said that the claim of Ireland was of paramount urgency, because there was no part of the United Kingdom to which the Imperial parliament owed so long and so deep a debt.

Field Day in the House

It was a field day for both sides, which marshalled its heaviest artillery just before the vote on the second reading. John Redmond and Bonar Law preceded the premier and were at their best.

Mr. Redmond said he had been a Federalist all his life and welcomed the present bill as the first step toward a great system of federation all around. Nationalists, he said, accepted the bill as a final settlement of the international quarrel between England and Ireland and, when saying this, he spoke not only for Irishmen in Ireland but for those in the United States, Canada, New Zealand and Australasia.

From the point of view of foreign policy and military strength of Great Britain, home rule, in Mr. Redmond's opinion, was the most urgent step that could be taken for safeguarding the British Isles.

Opposed by Bonar Law

Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, assailed the bill fiercely. The government, he declared, was settling up customs houses, not to create a union, but to destroy the union which already existed. He denounced the safeguards in the bill as utterly futile, condemned the financial provisions and drew a gloomy picture of Ireland's future under home rule.

Every new parliament of inexperienced men, the speaker said, had tried to get the millennium in a hurry. The new Irish parliament would launch all sorts of schemes for improving the condition of the country and borrow money for the purpose.

As a result the Imperial parliament would become liable for a huge capital sum it would not have sanctioned and for expenditures over which it had absolutely no control. He concluded by predicting that the government could never carry the bill through unless it was first submitted to the judgment of the country.

Last of the Conservatives

Curiously, the second reading of the home rule bill coincides with the disappearance of the word conservatives as the official designation of the Tory party.

A conference of the conservative and Liberal Unionist parties yesterday finally resolved upon a fusion of the two parties under the title of "National Unionist association." Thus the Liberal Unionists who seceded from Gladstone on his espousal of home rule now become part and parcel of the Tory party.

Mayor O'Donnell will preside. All the old time land leagues are invited to attend. There will be no collection of any kind.

The fans of that section have gone over the grounds carefully and removed all the accumulations of the winter months and now the grounds are in fine condition. There is great rivalry between the two teams and considerable money has been wagered on the result of the opening game.

RAD GRAHAM VISITS MANAGER HUGHEY JENNINGS

Lowell Man Called on Detroit Leader Wednesday

"Rad" Graham, the well known local baseball fan, went to Boston yesterday and paid a visit to his old friend, Hughey Jennings, manager of the Detroit Tigers. "Rad" is well acquainted with the Tigers' director, and while talking to the leader, the manager of the Boston Globe, dropped in. The Lowell man made a great impression on the clever "Ten" and the latter in writing of the visitor in this morning's Globe says:

The visitor said: "How are you, Mr. Jennings?" Jennings took his hand and replied: "I am very well thank you. How are you?"

Ten of the boys came down with me to see the game," said the visitor, "and all want to see you before they go back." To which Jennings replied, with a smile: "I'll be very glad to see the boys."

Hughey, still puzzled as to the identity of the man, answered: "One of the best pictures that I ever had taken."

The scrapbook was full of complimentary notices of Jennings, and enclosed was a letter from the Tigers' training camp. Then the manager got wise. "So you got my letter all right," remarked Jennings, by this time having remembered sending some one a letter in this section. However, it was five minutes before Jennings placed his caller, and he then asked to be remembered to "the doctor."

As Jennings and I walked away he said: "Always make a point of answering letters, no matter from where or who they come from. Now there is some baseball fan who evidently thinks well of me, and I appreciate that kind of friend."

Ball players of the Hugh Jennings stamp have done much for the game in this country. A fighter from Eightersville on the ball field, a classic in his line of work, and simple as a child when off duty, Jennings has developed the art of holding his friends, knowing that a combination of true friends can surmount all difficulties in time.

Ty Cobb, the Greatest of All Ball Players, Whose Work is Talk of Baseball World

Ty Cobb is up to his old tricks. Off to a bad start, the Tiger boy is now pulling off the same sensational stunts that have made him famous in seasons gone by. In the first few games of the present campaign Ty has a batting average of about .125, but of late he has crept up until he has a stick percentage of .395. If he keeps up his present gait he will probably head the league in a couple of weeks. Not alone is he whacking the ball hard, but his base running in the last half dozen games is the talk of the baseball world and will be for years to come. Three times this year he has stolen home while the pitcher was winding up to deliver the ball. On April 20, while Pitcher Gregg of Cleveland was going through his contortions Ty dashed for home and slid safely over the rubber before Catcher Easterly could catch the ball. May 1 in a battle with Chicago Cobb went from first to third on an infield out and then stole home on Pitcher Benz, Catcher Block dropping the ball. On May 4 in a contest with St. Louis Cobb again pilfered home plate. He was caught between second and third, but escaped and advanced a base. While Shortstop Wallace was retrieving the sphere Tyrus dashed for home. Catcher Kritchell got a perfect throw, but he dropped the ball, and Cobb was safe. In the game with Chicago May 1 the Georgia Peach scored the winning run of a ten inning game by some of the quickest thinking and acting ever seen on the diamond. As he was running to third base he spied the ball, thrown there to head him off, lying the base line or near it. Diving feet first into the leather, with irrational thought, he knocked it to the Detroit bench and scored in a common center. At the end of the last campaign experts said Cobb had reached the height of his career, but they made that same prediction at the end of other seasons. Judging by his great playing early this year, Tyrus will eclipse his 1911 work, which, by the way, was the greatest ever performed on the diamond by any ball player.

THE LOWELL AND LAWRENCE GAME

Ended in Third Inning Owing to Heavy Rain

LAWRENCE, May 10.—The Lowell-Lawrence game was called in the third inning yesterday afternoon with the score 2 to 1 in favor of the Lawrence team. The rain was the cause of it all. When the game was halted Lawrence had two men on base with two out. Wolfgang was doing the twisting for Lowell and Howard was on the mound for the home team. Umpire Stafford twice stopped the game owing to the weather and the last time he did not wait the required 30 minutes, but sent the men to the club house.

DIAMOND NOTES

Score 2 to 1—Hess Allowed One Hit

CHICAGO, May 10.—Pitcher Hess of Boston let Chicago down with one hit yesterday and the visitors won the final game of the series here, 2 to 1. Not a Chicagoan reached second base until the eighth. Smith allowed but four hits to Boston. A decision in the eighth was questioned by Tinker and Chance, and Umpire Bush ordered both to the club house. Score:

HALL WON FROM NELSON IN THE SEVENTH ROUND

In Main Bout At Lowell Social and Athletic Club. "Battle Royal" a Farce

The meeting of the Lowell Social and Athletic club was well attended last evening, and a very good program was given. The main bout between Joe Nelson of Lawrence and Charlie Hall, colored, of Boston, scheduled to go twelve rounds, ended in the seventh when Nelson's seconds realizing that their man had enough, threw in the sponge. The exhibition was very fast while it lasted. The first round was very lively and those present after seeing the way both started were convinced that it would not go the limit. Nelson landed the first blow and then ducked. He did most of the leading in this session, but Hall was there with the come back. The round ended with Nelson having a little advantage. The second round was also very lively and both sent home some telling blows. Hall began in this round to use his left, and he put in some good ones. The colored boy had a shade in the second. The third opened with Nelson getting the jump. He sent in several to the stomach and kidney and both were fighting hard. Hall went to the floor when he slipped, but he came right back and went after his man. He sent in several left hooks that staggered the Lawrence boy. As the round ended Nelson sent in a good left uppercut, and Hall came back with one to the solar plexus and Nelson was groggy. In the fourth and fifth Hall was the aggressor and gave a fine performance of foot-work and he also used both hands with good effect. The sixth round was also a battle and in the seventh and last, the fighting was very hard. Hall was sent to the door and Nelson while groggy, hit his man while down. Hall jumped up and sailed into his man with a shower of blows. At this time the towel went in from Nelson's corner and the bout was over.

The "battle royal" between five colored men was all right for a parlor. The darkies got in with big bed ticks and landed at one another and when one would go down he was taken to the dressing room. They went down in quick order. They first few seconds the exhibition was funny and much enjoyed. After that the performers did not stand in with the members and they were glad when it was over.

The preliminaries were very good. In the first young Evans of Swede Village defeated Young Scott of the Aerie in the third, and the other between Young O'Connell of Davis square and Young Keeler of Belvidere resulted in a victory for the latter in the second. Billy Gardner refereed.

BOBBIE KEELER
NOW MANAGER OF FLYNN, BOYLE AND DOYLE

Bobbie Keeler of this city, who is now looking after the boxing interests of Eddie Flynn, the clever Lynn lightweight, is negotiating with Matchmaker Gardner to have his man meet the winner of the main bout at the Lowell Social and Athletic club next week. Keeler also has charge of Young Boyle and Tommy Doyle, both of Lowell. Keeler himself was in the game for some time and is well acquainted with its many fine points. He plans a huge season for his men. On May 30 Keeler will take Flynn, Boyle and Doyle to New York where he has matches for the three boys. Flynn will meet Kid Burns, who a short time ago boxed Packey MacFarland.

HOGAN SAYS MCFARLAND IS BEST LIGHTWEIGHT

"One Round" Hogan says that he considers Packey McFarland one of the best men in his class in this country and follows this up by stating that he would favor McFarland in a bout with Wolgast, the lightweight champion. Only natural. McFarland beat Hogan easily, so "One Round" has concluded that none other than one of the very best men in the business could do that.

McFarland is on record as to fighting. He says he isn't a fighter, but a boxer; that he doesn't intend to be brutal with an opponent, that he doesn't want to get marked up himself and that he intends to preserve all his fighting spirit for his battle with Ad Wolgast, if the champion will ever meet him for the title. "Wolgast," Packey says, "is the man I will do everything I can do to defeat—to knock out. The others I am always content to outpoint."

In no disease does the blood become thin so rapidly as in rheumatism. Not only does it become thin but it is loaded with impurities—the rheumatic poisons. Without proper treatment these poisons increase, the inflamed joints swell and the patient becomes a cripple.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People build up the blood and enable it to cast out the rheumatic poisons with the natural secretions of the body. Every sufferer who does not try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is neglecting the most hopeful means of recovery.

If you are interested in the cure of rheumatism, send today for a copy of our booklet, "Building Up the Blood." It is sent free of charge. Send no money or stamps. ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE MADE BY PRISONER

Davis Swam Waters of Shirley Gut

SUFFERED GREATLY FROM EXPOSURE

Was Exhausted When He Reached Shore

BOSTON, May 10.—Charles Davis, alias Hollingsworth, made his fourth unsuccessful attempt early today to escape from the house of correction at Deer Island. Davis stole out of the hospital and dived into the swiftly running waters of Shirley Gut, in which few men have been able to keep afloat. The prisoner mastered the waves and eddies and finally landed on the Winthrop shore, opposite the "Island." Exhausted by the struggle and suffering intensely from exposure to the cold morning air, Davis fell prostrate upon the beach. Later he was found in a vacant house by John M. Simpson, a lumber dealer, and Harry Knox, Knox notified two prison officers who were searching for the fugitive and the man was taken back to Deer Island.

SCHOOL BUILDING

TO BE USED FOR POLITICAL GATHERINGS

JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 10.—A majority of the New Jersey board of education has agreed that the campaign addresses of Taft and Roosevelt are "highly educational" in character. The question came up at a special meeting called to consider applications from representatives of the two rival republican candidates for the use of the local high school.

Two of the school directors—both democrats—were opposed to allowing the school buildings to be used for political gatherings, saying that to their mind, it would establish a precedent and open the way for the holding of political gatherings in all the school buildings. They were overruled, however, by the other directors, who voted that the meetings would be highly educational and therefore proper.

ONE MAN IS DEAD FOUR OTHERS INJURED

By Collapse of Building
in Boston

BOSTON, May 10.—A portion of a five story building under construction on Edinboro street collapsed today, burying five Italian laborers in the ruins. The injured men were dug out from under the debris and rushed to a nearby hospital, where one of them died a few minutes later. The other four victims suffered painful injuries but are expected to recover.

WARNED TO FLEE FROM FLOOD DISTRICT

Many Refuse to Leave Their Homes

THINK DANGER IS NOT IMMINENT

Health Authorities Fear
Spread of Disease

NEW ROADS, La., May 10.—Flood waters from breaches in the Mississippi levees that already have carried misery to thousands of people of Louisiana continued to creep southward today and now this town, with its rich outlying country is threatened.

All people living in this territory have been warned to flee. Many, however, refusing to believe danger imminent declare they will not abandon their homes. Consequently government and state relief officials are preparing for a hard campaign of rescue work. Boats are being gathered here and crews are being drilled. It seems only a matter of a few hours before this entire territory will be inundated. This means the state and the government will have to care for thousands more homeless. Most of the flood water is coming from the great gash in the levee at Terras. This breach is 3000 feet wide. Water pours through it with the speed of a millrace. The flood is strongest through Pointe Coupee parish, where thousands of fertile sugar cane acres have been inundated.

This is the third successive calamity that the people of the Pointe Coupee district have been compelled to face. First came the boll weevil that destroyed the cotton crops. Then people, disheartened turned to planting cane. Now the flood is spread over the entire parish. Noting but ruin will be left in its wake. Crops this year cannot be planted. A new menace appeared in the flood today when carcasses of hundreds of animals came floating in the back water between New Roads and Terras. They can neither be buried nor burned. The health authorities are afraid they will bring disease. Vultures are doing their duty, however, and they probably will dispose of the nuisance.

Guggenheim and Evans in Colorado, Mr. Calhoun and the Southern Pacific railroad crowd in California and the Amalgamated Copper crowd in Montana and in your own state they include Mr. Smith and Mr. Tawney. The fight is a nation-wide fight of the plain people against the bosses. There is just one candidate whom it is possible to nominate against the bosses and that is myself.

Every vote for every other candidate from now on is in reality a vote for Mr. Taft. The fight is against the bosses in Minnesota, as it is everywhere else. A vote for Mr. Taft is a vote for the bosses; it is a vote for Lorimer, for Penrose, for Guggenheim, for Gallinger, and for all the rest of them and it is a vote for these men whether it is cast in Minnesota or in Massachusetts, or in Ohio, New Jersey, or California. I became a candidate only when I became convinced that no other progressive candidate could by any possibility be nominated against Mr. Taft. The contest has gone as far as to make it now evident that I certainly can be nominated against Mr. Taft and to that effect I shall be nominated or else a reactionary will be nominated. It is also evident that not only every progressive republican but every man who believes in decency and honesty in politics is against the rule and for the genuine rule of the people and is for the elimination of special privilege and for efficient endeavor to secure social and industrial justice can achieve his purpose only by supporting my candidacy. My personal interest is at no concern one way or the other, but it happens that at this time I think and embody the great cause which can be furthered only by supporting me. Almost everywhere where I have been able to appear personally in this campaign and fight the bosses we have beaten them and I ask that Minnesota stand beside Oregon and Illinois, Pennsylvania and Nebraska, Maine, Kansas and Maryland in this fight.

POOL SELLING

PRESSED
NEW YORK, May 10.—Officials of the baseball clubs in New York, Brooklyn and Jersey City have joined today with the police in a crusade to suppress pool selling on baseball games. District Attorney Cropsey of Kings county has taken up the legal question of selling baseball pools, which he says, he has been informed was going on at wholesale in Brooklyn and Manhattan. Agents have been assigned to collect evidence to be presented to a grand jury. The police commissioners in Jersey City have called a special meeting for next Wednesday to consider the question of baseball pools. Investigation shows that in hundreds of saloons and cigar stores tickets are sold in what is known as "blind" pools.

STRIKERS' DEMANDS

OF MERRIMACK MILLS

As a result of a complaint entered at the police station yesterday, the strikers were not quite as noisy today in the vicinity of Anne street as on previous days. The residents of that street as well as the teachers of the high school presented a protest at the station yesterday and asked that the police put a stop to the noise which had no more result than to disturb the people, especially the pupils of this school.

This morning Supt. Welch addressed the strikers in Anne street and told them they would have to cut out the shouting or they would be liable to arrest for disturbing the peace. They were told they could parade, but to do it in a decent way, that is not to disturb the residents of that district. The strikers fortunately took the advice and although shouting was not cut out entirely, there was an improvement in their conduct from the previous day. The strikers have formulated their demands and submitted them to Agent Wadleigh as follows:

First: Reinstatement of all employees in their former positions without discrimination.

Second: The adjustment of all fir-ture grievances between the firm and the employees through a shop committee of employees, and the agent or authorized representatives of the company, subject to rules mutually to be agreed upon.

Third: Abolition of all overtime work or payment at rate of time and a quarter, etc., noninterference to be included.

Agent Wadleigh's Answer

Agent Wadleigh said to the committee: "We consider our answer to your list, committee on May 7 covers the questions in your letter. We cannot see that any good can result from going over the matter again."

FINANCIAL HOUSE CLEANING

According to the determination of State Tax Commissioner Trefry he will proceed under the statutes to compel the tax collectors of cities and towns to give an account of all the taxes left uncollected over three years.

Then we are to have a general financial house cleaning as it were.

Verily it is high time that something of this kind were done as the citizens are weary of hearing that a very large amount of the tax levy remains uncollected for one reason or another. When taxes remain uncollected for five, ten and as high as thirteen years, it is time to have them wiped off the books. Other debts are outlawed in six years and taxes should be collected in that time or else wiped off the books by abatement.

The taxes on real estate regulate themselves because the property is advertised for sale in two years if the taxes are not paid. It may be of interest to some to know that taxes on polls or personal property are not outlawed by a time limit same as other debts.

The taxpayers of Lowell will rejoice to see this matter pushed to the limit. There has undoubtedly been laxity in the collections, resulting of course in allowing many to evade payment who are well able to pay.

Moreover we need the money and at a time when our municipal board is planning to appeal to the legislature for permission to borrow outside the debt limit to pay off a temporary loan, it is time to start a movement to collect all the back taxes that are collectable and to abate all that can't be collected. It appears that since 1899 the amount of taxes standing uncollected upon our books is nearly $200,000. The question arises how much of this amount is collectable now and whether it could have been collected at any earlier day if the tax collector had taken the right course to get the money.

The city of Lowell is not alone in this dilemma as the collectors of Boston and other cities are called upon to explain many things on which they may find it difficult to satisfy the state commissioner.

TO PENSION CITY LABORERS

The legislature has passed an act to pension city laborers on reaching the age of sixty, or earlier if incapacitated for further service, provided that in the first case the laborer has been in the employ of the city for not less than 25 years and in the latter for not less than fifteen years. The act is to be submitted to the voters. That is how the legislature shirks its responsibility in such cases, thus sending many unnecessary and dangerous arts to the people. Some of these occasionally get by and as a result great injury results to the cities or towns adopting them. This city has had all the pensions it wants and perhaps more than it wants. It is likely to have less rather than more. The Moffatt pension is in the air, and if it cannot be overcome there may be a move to abolish police pensions altogether.
The patrolmen would have preferred an increase in wages, and this would have been granted long ago but for the pension system. If the city laborers were granted pensions then there would be a demand for pensions for clerks in the departments, for teachers and in fact every city official from city treasurer down to poundkeeper.

SERVICE PENSIONS FOR VETERANS

Congress has adopted a service pension bill which will include all the veterans of the Civil war who served at least ninety days and have reached the age of sixty-two. The number of the veterans is rapidly growing less and those who are rightly to come in for the benefit of this pension act are not likely to remain long. Among its beneficiaries however, will be the survivors of 11,000 men who enlisted toward the close of the war under the last call for troops but who never saw any service in the field. They were all discharged three months after their enlistment. The pension law to them must seem particularly beneficent, while to the men who passed through the final battles of the war it will come as a welcome "relief granted to surviving soldiers, few in number, venerable in age, after a long lapse of time since their military service and as a parting benefaction tendered by a grateful people."

THE RICHESON CASE

The charge that the Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, the self-confessed murderer, is or was a Mormon does not seem to be authenticated. One woman swore that she attended meetings of the Mormons at which Richeson was the leading spirit, but several elders testify that Richeson did not belong to that cult. One alienist avers that Richeson is sane, yet others can be found who will find him non compos mentis, so that the governor and council cannot safely rely upon such evidence.

President Taft hit Roosevelt a staggering blow out in Ohio when he said: "Roosevelt did not prosecute the Harvester trust, he did not prosecute the steel trust, and now George W. Perkins is one of the chief contributors to his campaign. Had I failed to prosecute those trusts and were
I now receiving campaign contributions from them what would Mr.
Roosevelt say when in face of these facts he has the boldness to say that I represent the special-interests?" He gave Roosevelt the credit of great courage in making these statements, but he did not refer to his accomplishments as a member of the Ananias club.

The great need of a comfort station is daily emphasized at Merrimack square. The public supposed that steps had been taken to provide such a public necessity somewhere around the corner on Paige street but nothing has been done in the matter.

The rail operatives of Lowell in our opinion have had all the vacation they want for some time, and they should, therefore, take care not to be led into any action that will cause another general shut-down to last well through the summer.

Seen and Heard

George M. Rex, the expert accountant who examined the financial books of this city and who was in Lowell today, is the secretary of the National Association of Comptrollers and Accounting Officers and this association is to hold its seventh annual convention at Buffalo, N. Y., June 6, 7 and 8. The president of the association is Hon.
Edmund D. Fisher, deputy comptroller,
New York city, and the first vice-president is Hon. Samuel M. Whitte, comptroller, Louisville, Kentucky. Hon.
W. S. McCormick, comptroller, Duluth,
Minnesota, is the treasurer. The purpose of the meeting is to consider improved methods of public finance and the extension of the movement for the installation of a uniform system of state and municipal accounting and reporting, together with the general development of the principles of economy and efficiency in national, state and municipal administration.

There's a letter box at the door and the postman deposits four letters there when we're away. It seems that Bill thought the box was a genuine letter box and a place to deposit letters addressed to any part of the country, and he slipped one in. Little Jimmie, the forty-horse power messenger boy, was rushing baseball copy when he noticed the scribe dropping the letter in the box and Jimmie laughed so hard that he had to go home and have a whole lot of new buttons sewed on.
"You're always poking fun at somebody else and I think it's up to you to give yourself a rap in that Seen and Heard column," said Jimmie between spasms, and just to show Jimmie that there's no "antip" and no discrimination we mention the action of the absent minded scribe.

Herbert E. March, the charity expert of Jacksonville, was talking about charity.

"The rich give far more in charity," he said, "than is generally believed. It's altogether erroneous, the prevalent idea of the rich man's callous, stupid attitude in the face of poverty and suffering."

"That prevalent idea is illustrated well in the story of Mrs. Gohsa Golde, to whom a charity worker said, 'Thousands of poor people freeze to death
every winter.'"

"Dear me," Mrs. Gohsa Golde replied, "Why don't they go to California?"

I. N. Crawford, a well-known hardware merchant of La Porte, Ind., loves
a joke. He prefers that it should be at the expense of some one else; but as sometimes happens to the joker, his jokes are occasionally boomerangs.

One day a farmer entered Mr. Craw-ford's store and asked if he could exchange some butter for hardware. The butter of the thing appealed to the proprietor.

"Why, certainly," he said, "Take the butter right up to the house. My wife is not at all particular."

The Hoosier farmer looked him over slowly and critically from head to foot and then drawled out: "Land o' Goshen-ent I should say not."

Springtime Aids to Beauty

By CLEO DE GALYS

"A genuine complexion beautifier is made at home by dissolving an original package of Mayatone in a half pint of witch hazel. Gently rub this solution over the face, neck and forehead
in the morning and it will 'hold' all day. It will not rub off nor show like powder and makes the skin soft,
satin and pliable."

"No toilet table is complete without a jar of Mother's Salve. It is a splendid remedy for chaps, cold sores, pimples, eczema and skin eruptions. It is antiseptic and heals cuts, burns, scalds and long-standing sores."

"A safe, sure and speedy way to remove superfluous hair on face or forearms is by applying deodorant paste.
Mix enough powdered deodorant and water to cover the hairs, apply, and wipe off after two or three minutes;
then wash the skin and the hairs will be gone."

"Soap and water dull and deaden hair. It is better to use a dry shampoo to clean the hair and scalp. Mix four ounces of powdered orris root with an original package of therax, sift a teaspoonful over the head and brush thoroughly through the hair. This treatment makes the hair grow long and abundant, and it becomes bright, wavy and beautifully lustrous."

FLORAL TABLE DECORATIONS

Have you ever seen a table in summer decorated with wild carrot? It costs nothing and when arranged in masses in a deep green bowl, is cool and dainty. If you can get the seed beds to mix in with the carrot the effect is heightened. In selecting a floral centerpiece strive for variety. Have a different decoration for each meal.

Never if flowers must be used more than once, as is natural where one has a small garden, it takes little time to have a separate decoration for each meal. At breakfast keep the scheme simple. Some people will not use flowers at this meal, but a few fresh blooms in a slender vase are sure to attract.

The dinner decoration should have thought put on it.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

A LITTLE NONSENSE

IT OUGHT TO.

Towne—I'm going to call my drama "The Vacuum Cleaner."
Brown—That ought to have some drawing power.

NO DOUBT.

"Reggy's wife has sued him for a divorce."
"Will she marry again or go back to the stage?"
"Yes."

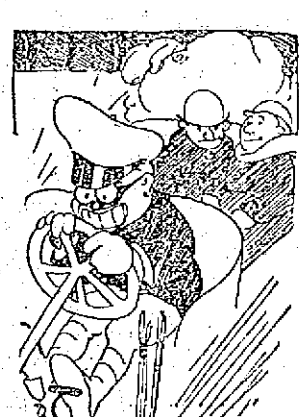

CONCISELY STATED.

"What sort of a bit did Reggy make?"
"Sort of a dull thud."

HAD A REASON.

Belle—I understand you bought a gold ring.
Harry—Had to. It was the only way I could get my name in print.

NO DOUBT ABOUT IT.

"Are you sure your chauffeur can be trusted?"
"Yes, sir. We belong to the same college fraternity."

CRUELTY.

Alyle—Did you hear how that fully serene Miss Danks got over with Arthur Jones?
Marion—No.
Alyle—She got up and gave him his seat in the street car.

Great Sensation Today at City Hall

ANOTHER OUTBREAK AT SCRANTON TODAY

Strikers Broke Through Police Lines and Drive People From Work

Shots Fired, Guns and Clubs Used--State Police Charged the Mob--Women Took Prominent Part in the Rioting

SCRANTON, Pa., May 10.—Carnage, strike breakers of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Co. in North Scranton formed the background of an ugly riotous demonstration today. Foreign workmen were leaders among the crowd of 2,000 men and boys that assembled near the breaker to keep away men who were going to work, defied the squad of local police who an hour before had been hurried from every city station on notice from the mine officials that trouble was threatened. The rioters broke through the police lines, rushed the fire rooms and dragged out men, turning them over to others who beat them and threw them aside.

State police on duty all night at the Leggett Creek line, a mile away, hurried over. Their coming rallied the local police and together the officers charged the mob. There were shots from the rioters. Bricks, stones, and clubs were thrown and the officers, dropping their clubs, drew their guns and began to force the crowd back. Some shots were fired by the police as Policemen Peter Marker and Louis Davis fell, both with battered heads from cobblestones. The state police then charged the crowd. Two foreigners dropped to the ground, the first shot through the stomach, the other in the leg. The crowd then broke and ran and the police combined to drive them on toward the houses.

Two men and a half dozen women were arrested.

The rioters took refuge behind cars on the railroad near the breakers but were finally dispersed when the railroad police came upon a special car and began to hand out guns to the local policemen.

Captain Williams and Director O'Malley of the Scranton department of public safety ordered the police to patrol the entire grounds and to suppress at once any further trouble. They also warned the crowd attracted to the place by the trouble to disperse, telling them to remain away and stay peaceable.

The police and troopers now seem to have the situation under control.

William Littlejohn, going to five duty at the Leggett Creek mine, was badly beaten by women.

CITY OFFICIALS WERE MERCILESSLY SCORED BY ACCOUNTANT REX

He Proves By Figures on a Blackboard That Huntington Hall Money, Nesmith and Other Funds Have Been Spent

Says We Have Too Many Clerks at City Hall, Put There as Favorites by Politicians--He Advises the Abolition of One City Department and a Reduction in the Number of Clerks

At a meeting of the municipal council held this forenoon, George M. Rex, the expert accountant, proved by practical demonstration with the blackboard and crayon that the $49,000, known as the Huntington hall fund is a financial fallacy and an account which is chimerical in character.

He also demonstrated the fact that there is a deficit in the city treasury; that the Nesmith and other funds have gone the way of the Huntington hall fund and that Lowell's system of book-keeping is passe.

Mr. Rex said that money could be saved by reducing the clerical force at city hall, by better departmental management and by abolishing at least one department.

He said that men were not elected to the legislature or to the municipal council because of their knowledge of affairs. He said that men who spent money for a purpose other than that for which it was appropriated were guilty of misfeasance in office.

It was one of the most interesting meetings that the council has held this year and Mr. Rex provided a lot of side lights that will be of great assistance later on. He did not beat about the bush and in each and every instance he called a spade a spade.

One very important action of the meeting had to do with the borrowing of $700,000 to meet obligations, outstanding. Mr. Rex said that to go to the legislature and seek permission to borrow was the only remedy. The council voted to go to the legislature and ask for permission to borrow $700,000 for the purpose of paying certain outstanding notes. The petition will be submitted to the legislature on Monday morning, and the council further voted to ask that the hearing on the matter be held in this city. The commissioner of finance was instructed to have Mr. Rex present at the hearing in order that he might give the legislative committee all the information necessary.

In the course of the meeting, Commissioner Brown said that the heads of departments at city hall were mere figureheads and that they were not figureheads they should be discharged, whereupon Mr.

GEORGE M. REX,
Expert Accountant

Brown replied that there were some whose services might be dispensed with.

The meeting was not without its humor and comedy and at one time when near reported was in motion, Mr. Rex suggested that one way of saving money would be for the commissioners to give back their princely salaries to the city and serve "faithfully and well" for the glory of it.

"That's a joke, not for publication," said Mr. Rex to the reporters.

Let them say that we said we would do that and the people wouldn't believe it," said Mr. Cummings.

"School days, school days, when we were a couple of kids," hummed Alderman Barrett when he entered the council chamber at 10 o'clock and observed the blackboards upon which Mr. Rex demonstrated the fact that the Huntington hall fund lives in name only. After humming the school day lines, Mr. Barrett looked soberly at the blackboard and allowed that the schoolmaster would probably do some pretty interesting figuring before recess.

The Meeting.

Mayor O'Donnell called to order at 10:20 o'clock and the first business of the meeting was the drawing of four traverse jurors to serve at the superior court now in session at Cambridge and to report on Monday the thirteenth day of May. They were: Winfield Cross, 33 Seventh street, janitor; Joseph F. Corcoran, 46 Fort Hill avenue, printer; Harry M. Gumb, 14 Bowdoin street, granite dealer; Patrick Fitzgibbon, 237 Gotham street, shoe dealer.

River Road Hearing.

Several minor petitions were properly referred and notice of a hearing before the committee on ways and means at the state house on the bill providing for the improvement of a highway along the northerly bank of Merrimack river was read. The hearing will be held Tuesday, May 14, at 10 a. m.

Board of Health Loan.

The city clerk was instructed to give the necessary notice of an order to borrow $25,000 for a board of health stable, a 30 year loan.

Tax Collection.

There was an order appropriating $59,250 to pay for special collection of taxes. Alderman Barrett thought the bill should be paid out of the city treasurer's fund. It was finally voted to authorize the commissioner of finance to pay the bill.

Expert Rex and the $49,000.

By request of Alderman Brown his order to transfer the Huntington hall money to called from the city treasury to the bank was taken up, and Mr. Brown asked Mr. Rex a few questions: "How much money was there on hand the first of the year?" asked Mr. Brown.

"One hundred fifty-four thousand," answered Mr. Rex. "Was the Huntington hall money represented in that amount?"

"It was not."

Mr. Rex said that $126,604.42 of the $154,000 was balance of loans for street paving, Shedd park, new reservoir, etc.

"I think it is generally admitted by everybody in Lowell," said Mr. Rex, "that the receipts of the water department cannot be transferred to any other department and there has been interest accruing from month to month for which the water department should have been given credit but was not."

"The water department accounts should be kept separate and the general manner of keeping the city's accounts should be changed. Your system is not up to date."

"I suppose," said Alderman Cummings, "that interest on borrowed money should be credited to the department for which it was borrowed?"

"Yes, that is so," said Mr. Rex. "Take the loans that were made last year," said Mr. Rex, "or any money borrowed for a specific purpose cannot be used for any other purpose."

"The people who loan the money," said Alderman Cummings, "tell us that we must not specify exactly what the money is to be used for. We want to borrow money for street improvements and the banks don't want us to name the streets in the loan order."

"That is all right," said Mr. Rex, "what you want to do is to borrow $50,000, or whatever is the amount, for street improvement, and use it as you see fit."

"That would enable the commissioner in charge of the streets to construct new streets and do with the money

THE TORY LEADER ACCUSES ASQUITH

Of Assisting United States With Alleged Designs on Canada

He Says Object of Reciprocity Negotiations Was to Make Canada a Part of the United States

LONDON, May 10.—Andrew D. Law, the leader of the opposition in the house of commons, addressing the annual love feast of the Primrose league at Albert hall today, directly charged Premier Asquith's government in assisting the United States with its alleged designs on Canada. The Tory leader said:

"The quarrel between President Taft and Ex-President Roosevelt shows that the object of the reciprocity negotiations was to make Canada an adjunct of the United States. While it was the duty of President Taft to look after the interests of the United States it was also the duty of the British government to look after the interests of the empire, but it went out of its way to try and make Canada an adjunct of the United States, from which it was saved by the instinct of the Canadian people."

SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED BY MR. AND MRS. MICHAEL NUGENT

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Nugent of Lowell street this city celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage at their home Wednesday evening. A large number of friends gathered and offered congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Nugent were united in marriage on May 8, 1887, by the Rev. J. P. Nulty, P. P. at Carnaross county Meath, Ireland.

The happy couple came to this country on June 4 of the same year. They came directly to Lowell and took up residence in St. Michael's parish and have remained there since. They are devout attendants at the church there and are connected with several of the societies. Their home has been blessed by eight children, all of whom are living and the latter assisted in receiving the guests at the celebration Tuesday evening. All the children reside with their parents. They are Christopher, Thomas, Chas.

Mr. Nugent has been employed in the Middlesex company since settling here and now holds a very important position. Mr. and Mrs. Nugent are in perfect health and their many friends hope that they will live to observe their golden wedding anniversary.

PAWTUCKETVILLE SOCIAL CLUB

The meeting of the Pawtucketville Social club was held last night in the rooms in Moody street and was largely attended. President Roderick Descheneaux occupied the chair and considerable business was transacted. A new member, A. N. Gendron, was initiated and a few applications for membership were acted upon favorably. A very important question brought before the meeting was the macadamizing of one side of Moody street from the bridge to Sixth avenue.

HOUSEKEEPING SCHOOLS

for Young Girls

The need for training schools for servants is by no means such a crying one as that of housewifery for mistresses. If every girl on leaving school were to go through a course of practical household training she would then have some idea of how to manage a home of her own. It would enable her both to teach inefficient servants and to detect waste, and while materially decreasing expenses she would be in a position to add greatly to the comfort and well being of the members of her household.

Every girl, no matter what her social status, should know all about housekeeping, from cleaning a saucepan to darning the finest household linen.

In the days of long ago there lived a great lady who had inherited vast possessions, but owing to her general incompetence and want of knowledge she soon discovered that she was being cheated on all sides. Her house was in confusion, her lands neglected, and her stock rapidly became a source of loss instead of profit. In her distress she consulted a friend, who told her to visit daily not only every room of her mansion, but also every shed and stable on her farms. She was to look to each of their four corners, notice what she saw and correct what she knew to be wrong.

She obeyed and very shortly came to tell the result of her obedience. She had discovered which of her servants were dishonest and had replaced them with those who could be trusted. She had absorbed household knowledge almost unconsciously. She now knew how things ought to be done, and in her daily tour of inspection she detected any carelessness or neglect and ordered it to be rectified.

SIMPLE, BUT ATTRACTIVE

The strong contrast of white collar and cuffs and black velvet bands with this green linen frock is very Puritan and chic. The design is exceedingly simple, but is made distinctive by its effective trimmings. The eyelet em-

INFECTION BY DISEASE GERMS

A cut, scratch or wound offers a ready-made for disease germs, and neglect to immediately apply an antiseptic may result seriously. Blood poisoning may result. It is a fan don't miss it. Niblo and Reilly are a pair of clever black face comedians while Niblo is a funny eccentric dancer. Gordon and Warren present a pleasing comedy sketch with a lot of real life in it. entitled "Going Back to Mother." Jack Murphy can certainly extract music from the telephone and his act is a big hit. Ross and Montrose, have a most pleasing nursery act which they close with a musical feature on concertina and piano. Mr. Rose making a great hit with his operatic selections on the humble concertina. The Wartenburg brothers are double foot balancers who while juggling with their pedal exercisers use their hands to play the banjo and guitar. Then there are the

For an act that is full of thrills, don't fail to see the Flying Henrys this week at the Academy of Music. They do everything that the other fellows do and then some more. The balance of the show consists of Sachs & Van Allen, and Alice Melvin, a singing comedienne who, who is exceedingly well known locally and who knows how to put over songs in a very fetching manner. The pictures are extra good, especially the Kalem war picture. On Sunday, Rose McDonough and her M. T. L. Bachelor Girls will have a brand new stunt entitled "The Jungle Maids" and while the song sheet of last Sunday was an extra large success, it is bound to be eclipsed by this new one.

Next week the "Hottest Coon in Dixie"

Co. will have the boards.

The photo-plays for the last three days of the week include an excellent series of picture portrayals of the Steamer Titanic on her departure from Southampton and other interesting views of the rescue ship Carpathia as she entered New York harbor with 700 or more passengers of the Titanic who were picked up in the life boats. The views are the first of their kind shown in these parts and no doubt will be of unusual interest to all. The other pictures will be in keeping with the high standard of entertainment provided by the entire bill. The Temple Players, assisted by Miss Grace Hawthorne, soprano soloist, presenting "Popular Week," are among the best producers of high-class musical comedy that have been seen on a local stage in seasons. The act introduces many of the choicest selections taken from the musical world, and all are given with a snap and finish that's truly enjoyable.

Leo Whalen, polite entertainer, and Paulette, contortionist, are other contributors. Miss Alice Jenkins, the week's vocalist, is also exceptionally pleasing. Supper hour matinees, given between the hours of 5.30 and 7.30 o'clock each evening, are just the thing for those who are unable to attend the regular afternoon or evening performances. Those wishing to have their favorite seats reserved for them from week to week should place their names on the subscription list. It costs no more.

A Few New Recipes

of Good Things to Eat

Macaroni Napoli.—Cut four thin slices of bacon into small pieces, fry and strain off the hot fat. Set into a saucepan. Add three-fourths of a can of tomatoes, one sliced onion, one-fourth teaspoonful each of mace and allspice, one-eighth teaspoonful of cayenne and a bit of bay leaf. Bring to the boiling point, simmer one hour and season with salt and pepper. Add cooked macaroni or spaghetti cut into two inch strips (of which there should be two cupsful) and cook until the macaroni is thoroughly heated. Serve very hot.

Creamed Chicken Fricassee.—Cut a fine, well cleaned chicken of from three to four pounds into ten pieces and put them into a large saucepan of boiling water for three minutes, then drain into a colander and, instantly plunge into cold water, letting them remain five minutes. Take out the chicken, place in a clean saucepan over the fire, cover with boiling water, add one heaping teaspoonful of salt, two white onions and a bunch of herbs. Cover and boil slowly until tender. Drain off the broth and strain it. Melt two ounces of butter in a saucepan, add two heaping teaspoonfuls of flour, stir and cook two minutes, add the chicken broth and half a can of mushrooms, remove all fat from the sauce and add more salt if necessary. Mix the yolks of three eggs with half pint of cream, add it slowly to the gravy, and, lastly, the juice of a lemon. Arrange the chicken on a hot dish, pour over the gravy, lay the mushrooms in clusters around and garnish with sprigs of parsley.

English Muffins.—One quart of flour, half a teaspoonful of salt, one-third cake of yeast, one and one-half cups of warm water. Dissolve the yeast in one-third of a cup of cold water, add salt and the warm water. Gradually stir in the flour. Beat thoroughly, cover and let it rise in a warm place until spongy, which will be about five hours. Then shape the dough on a floured board into balls twice the size of an egg and flatten them to one-third of an inch thick. Set on a warm griddle that has been slightly greased and place on the back of the stove to rise a little draw them forward and cook slowly, turning often. They should take about twenty minutes to raise and about fifteen to bake. Tear them apart and butter while hot.

Strawberry cocktail.—Cut the strawberries into slices and cover them with the juice of an orange and let them stand until serving time. Put them into the glasses with enough powdered sugar to sweet them and a tablespoonful of shaved ice. Serve in cocktail glasses.

FOR RETURNING STOCK CERTIFICATES VALUED AT $501.000

NEW YORK, May 10.—As a reward for his honesty in returning stock certificates valued at $501.000 which he found yesterday in Exchange place, James Dowd, a messenger boy, 15 years old, who is employed by a Wall street news agency, was given 25 cents. The certificates were the property of a Broad street brokerage firm.

SPRING HOUSECLEANING HINT

With the spring housecleaning going on many women who take care of their own homes will find it necessary to turn their carpets about into different positions in a room before laying them again. Perhaps the carpets will have to be made over, ripped in the seams and turned about to meet the needs of the readjustment.

If this is the case use a sharp pen-knife or a small paring knife with a sharp edge. Turning the carpet on the wrong side so the seams are exposed, cut the stitches exactly between the seam, taking care not to cut the carpet. After the breadths have been turned about they must be sewed together again. First pick out all the threads from each side of the seams, then lay the breadths together, right side to right side, and sew with waxed carpet thread, using a long, heavy needle which comes for the purpose. The stitch most commonly used is the simple over and over stitch.

Stitches should not be taken too close together and should not be drawn tight. Just draw them so they will be firm and allow the seam to lie flat when the carpet is laid on the floor.

Some persons prefer the cross or rat stitch for sewing ingrain carpets, but the easiest and quickest is to use the over and over stitch.

Old carpets that have outlived their usefulness as entire floor coverings may be converted into useful rugs by

A housekeeper who is forced to economize in every possible way made three good sized rugs from an old Brussels carpet.

The nap was so worn from the right side that she found it almost worthless, so she turned the carpet wrong side up, making it into rugs, then applied mahogany stain to them, making them a rich red brown color that harmonized well with the other furnishings of the room.

ITCHING RASH LIKE RINGWORMS

On Face and Arm in Scaly Masses. Pained and Burned. Got One Cake Cuticura Soap and Box Cuticura Ointment. Soon Entirely Well.

115 Pleasant St., Gloucester, Mass.—"About five years ago a rash began coming on my face and arm. It was itching and painful and used to burn. Every time I scratched it, it would spread into circles like ringworms. My face and arms were in scaly masses and the skin was rough and red. It would keep me up nights. I tried several remedies but they did no good. Then I got one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment. I washed the sores and put the Cuticura Ointment on it and soon it was entirely well and it never came back." (Signed) Miss Viola Richardson, Nov. 16, 1911.

ONLY CUTICURA SOAP FOR BABY

Never Had a Sore and Does Not Chafe. Redondo Beach, Calif.—"I have always used Cuticura Soap and no other for my baby and he has never had a sore of any kind. He does not even chafe as most babies do. I feel that it is all owing to Cuticura Soap for his fine and healthy skin. When five months old he won a prize in a baby contest. It makes my heart ache to go into so many homes and see a sweet faced baby with the whole top of its head a solid mass of scurf, caused by the use of poor soap. I always recommend Cuticura, and the mother says 'Oh! I am so glad you told me of Cuticura.'" (Signed) Mrs. G. A. Selby, Jan. 15, 1912.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold everywhere. Sample of each mailed free. Address, "Cuticura," Dept. T, Boston. Tender-faced baby should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick.

AN EASY TRIP THROUGH YELLOWSTONE PARK

Huntington Hall Money Gone
By subtracting the total loan balance from the amount of cash on hand the first of the year a balance of $27,355.58 remained and as that would not cover the Huntington hall fund, $49,000, it could not be said that the Huntington hall money was in the possession of the city.

Here's Something Soothing for Sunburn

TOILETINE
Soothes and Heals
Take your bottle of Toiletine that you should always keep in the house, and apply it freely wherever there is a sunburn. Rub it into the skin and the pain will stop. When you treat your sunburn with Toiletine you can wear a collar on your neck—you can roll down your cuffs, and your hat won't chafe your forehead. Sunburn isn't so bad after all if you use Toiletine.

Sunburned Kiddies need not suffer. Neither should grown-ups.

With winter over, the skin is very tender to the rays of a summer sun. The arms, the back of the neck, the cheeks, turn red and peel and crack and hurt like thunder!

Another Addition To the Riker-Jaynes Drug Stores

In Boston we have just opened the 71st Riker-Jaynes Drug Store. As with all our new stores, business came with a rush the moment the doors were opened. There is a great sense of satisfaction to us in this. No other drug concern could get the same ready response, and we feel amply repaid by this demonstration for our 60 years of drug store service in New England and New York.

was submitted to Mr. Rex and he believed it to be properly and carefully prepared.

"If we were to vote this afternoon to build a public hall at a cost of $150,000, would we have the Huntington hall fund, the $49,000, to start with?" asked Alderman Cummings.

"No, sir, you would not," replied Mr. Rex.

"If the Legislature Refuses?"

"What would we do if the legislature should refuse to allow us to borrow the $49,000?" asked Alderman Cummings.

"Let the banks sue the city for judgment and the legislature will issue an act for a special tax on the taxpayers of the city to meet the obligation. That's the only way out, that I can see," said Mr. Rex.

Mr. Rex, replying to a question by Alderman Barrett, said that the Huntington hall money should not be referred to as $19,000, but as $19,000 plus the interest.

"You don't understand that we are under no obligation to return that $49,000," said Alderman Cummings.

"The money belongs to the city and you would have no right to go to the legislature and ask to borrow to replace it," said Mr. Rex.

System is Poor

Mr. Rex referred again to the poor system of taxation in Lowell. He said it was all right to be lenient with the people who owe money, if it's your own money, but when it's somebody else's money it's a different proposition.

Mayor O'Donnell asked Mr. Rex if he would like to demonstrate to the council on the blackboard that the $19,000, known as the Huntington hall money, existed in name only.

malfeasance in office?" asked Alderman Barrett.

"You would have to show that he had knowledge of the fact," said the mayor.

Alderman Barrett went into the matter further and Mr. Rex finally said: "The best way out of that would be to discharge your auditor."

"Well, if the municipal council specifically provides for a certain job and the auditor charges up other work against that account wouldn't he be guilty of malfeasance in office?" persisted Mr. Barrett.

"Yes, malfeasance, or misfeasance," said Mr. Rex.

Foolish Administration

"What does misfeasance mean," was asked.

"Foolish administration," said Mr. Rex, laughing.

"A new meaning and a good one,"

There is no divided authority between the auditor and treasurer and when it comes to the point where money is called for it will be the duty of the auditor to advise as to whether or not the city can afford it. The auditor will let the municipal council posted.

Ald. Brown said that heads of departments under the new charter are only figureheads.

"Then let them all go," said the mayor. "Your statement is ridiculous," said Alderman Cummings.

"I have none that I want to let go," said Alderman Cummings.

"Nor I," chimed Messrs. Barrett and Donnelly.

Mr. Rex, in reply to a question by Alderman Barrett, said he could make other suggestions than those contained in his report, but he said the suggestions would have to be worked out in order to ascertain if they are practical.

To Make Saving

He allowed that a big saving could be made.

BLUE SERGE—Popular shades, close weave, fine face, warranted permanent colorings, all wool worsted serge. Easily comparable to many serges you have in the past paid the full prices for in all other stores. Three-piece suits cut and made any way you dictate, fit guaranteed or no sale, to order, $12.50.

NOVELTIES—In all the seasonable shades and colorings. Absolutely all wool worsted fabrics in a variety of patterns that few but the biggest houses in the country could afford to carry. Suit to order $12.50.

Dark Silk Mixtures—As an eye opener for the man who is limited to a moderate price suit, who can buy one suit a year or longer, who wants a medium weight fabric for summer or winter wear, and who wants dark colored goods that may be worn upon all occasions, goods positively worth much bigger prices. I have set a part of my stock in a special range and will call them for the time being, $10.00 to order.

I have homely notions in regard to business. I don't care whether a man knows the quality or not when he picks out and pays for a suit. All I know is that when he buys another suit, he recalls the service and satisfaction of the last suit. If my clothing gives satisfaction, you will come to me again. That's why I put the finest cloth this country makes into my popular priced suits.

MANY PAST REGENTS WERE ENTERTAINED

By Highland Council,
Royal Arcanum

Highland hall in Branch street was the scene of an enjoyable affair last night, the occasion being a jollification of the past regents of the various councils of the Royal Arcanum of this city and Billerica. The past regents of Highland council acting as hosts. There were 43 past regents present and there were speeches by prominent members of the order, a banquet was served and an entertainment followed. There were present also, a number of invited guests.

It was shortly after eight o'clock

when the meeting was called to order and addresses were made by Grand Regent Ernest P. Hobson of Palmer, Mass., supreme trustee John J. Hogan; Past Regent A. C. Walsh; past regent, Fred E. Jones, and Vice Regent M. J. Sullivan, the latter of Industry council. Mr. Sullivan presented the whist trophy to Highland council, having been won by Industry council a year ago. In the course of his remarks, Mr. Sullivan made some interesting comments on the relative abilities of the whist players of the three councils in the league. The roll call was read, past regents of various councils responding as their names were called by Regent Pearl Kinney of Highland council.

An excellent menu was discussed for about an hour and then an entertainment was given. Among those who participated were the Melody Lane Girls and Niblo & Reilly from Keith's theatre, F. M. Biron acting as accompanist.

MRS. LUCIA A. MEAD ADDRESSED TEACHERS

On Educational Aspects
of Peace Movement

A very interesting lecture on "Educational Aspects of the Peace Movement" was given before the city teachers by Mrs. Lucia Ames Mead. The address was delivered in the high school hall and was largely attended.

When we have once rid the world of international war, and set free the billions of dollars annually that are going to waste, we are going to do for education and reform of all kinds, what we have never been able to do. Just as truly as chattel slavery was abolished in the last century, she believed, the next century is going to see the cessation of war between nations. When we teach the children to sing "Then conquer we must, when our cause is just," we are teaching them something that rhymes, but it is not true. We do not conquer when our cause is just, unless we have the most men, the most money or the best strategic position.

WOMAN BEGINS ACTION AGAINST PROPRIETOR OF LAUNDRY

Victoria Kiernan has brought suit against Theodore Skaperdas, proprietor of the Nausika steam laundry, an action of tort, to recover $10,000 for alleged injuries received. The papers in the suit have been filed at East Cambridge. The plaintiff, in her declaration, states that while she was in the employ of the defendant she was feeding the collander or mangle and owing to improper guards her hand was caught in the machine and injured so that she is unable to use it.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

The regular meeting of Washington commandery, U. O. P. E., was held last night in Veritas hall in Branch street. There was a large attendance despite the inclemency of the weather and considerable routine business was transacted. One application was received, balloted for and elected. It was announced that Lady Carrier of Haverhill had been appointed deputy grand commander for the ensuing year. Under good of the order Grand Treasurer Arthur L. Gray and others spoke. Mrs. Spaulding gave a recitation, and Miss Ethel French gave a vocal selection.

WARNING

Ladies

We leave our position and success here in Lowell—already firmly established by your generous patronage—and complete satisfaction—ABSOLUTELY IN YOUR HANDS. Success always has imitators. When we decided to sell direct to the public in many sections of the country, others attempted to follow us—but like all imitations—THE IMITATION WAS AND IS WEAK. We will, no doubt, be followed here by those who will throw out baits in the way of "a few specials" and even go so far as to call themselves "wholesalers"—but the facts of the case are that they are not serious competitors. We use this prominent space in this announcement to forewarn you of our imitators. We leave our business in your hands, knowing full well that your good judgment will dictate that the wholesale prices in these rooms are without competition.

He defended President Taft against the criticisms by Col. Roosevelt and attacked the colonel as a man "prompted by whims" of "imperial ambitions, vanities and mysterious antipathies" and as "one who would break the rule of his party and his country and his own word to gain the seat of a friend."

"The new nationalism" of Colonel Roosevelt was termed by Secretary Knox "as violent an assault upon the autonomy of the state as the new nationalism of 1861 was upon the integrity of the Union."

In refutation of Col. Roosevelt's claim that President Taft was unfit for re-election, Mr. Knox cited the colonel's language as the "true friend of reform, the true foe of abuses."

Declaring that "this is perhaps one of the most extraordinary anti-convention campaigns within the history of the party," Mr. Knox said that the effort so far "has been to confuse the situation by dragging in issues with which the states alone are concerned."

Mr. Knox then summarized and compared the respective claims to reform achievements by Col. Roosevelt and President Taft, and asserted that the president's accomplishments far outweigh those of his predecessor.

"If Mr. Roosevelt," he said, "claims that President Taft is seeking or has the support of the men who for years have stood for leadership in the republican party and guided its columns to victory, President Taft can reply that Mr. Roosevelt sought and had their support in his campaign in 1904 and that in many places now his interests are in the hands of rejected

ABOUT PICTURES

Pictures are often neglected and allowed to get dull and faded from want of a little attention. If they be engravings or water colors, as soon as any deposit of dust is seen to have worked itself through the frame the picture should be carefully taken out and cleaned by crumpling a piece of soft bread and rubbing it over the surface of the picture. This will remove all dust and any other mark that has been made on the print. Oil paintings should be carefully sponged with cold water and polished with a soft silk cloth.

Valuable oils should be protected with glass. This has all the good effect of varnish without any of its disadvantages. When choosing pictures, if you have no artistic sense, have some artistic friend or an artist go with you to buy. Also follow this rule when hanging the paintings. It will pay in the end, for pictures carelessly arranged will mar the beauty of an otherwise handsomely furnished room.

SENATE SUSTAINS GOVERNOR'S VETO

Of Spanish War Vet's Preference Bill

BOSTON, May 10.—The governor's veto of the Spanish war veterans' 5 per cent. civil service preference bill was sustained yesterday afternoon, but by the narrowest possible margin. Had not Pres. Greenwood voted in the negative the bill would have been carried over the veto by the requisite two-thirds vote.

Before the president had his name called the vote stood 25 for the bill and 13 for the veto. Greenwood's vote in the negative settled the question and the veto was sustained.

The action was taken after a very brief discussion, during which McCarthy of Marlboro urged the passage of the measure over the veto and Mulligan spoke against such action.

MUST OBTAIN PERMIT TO BURN RUBBISH

Olive Oil in the Household

Next to bread, there is no one article of food which has so much value as pure olive oil. It is so easily digested that it can and should be used with nearly all our foods. Pompeian Olive Oil, from the finest groves in Italy, not chemically treated or adulterated in any way, has such a sweet nutty taste that it improves the taste of foods and at the same time gives to the body health and strength. Pompeian Olive Oil when mixed with the flour used in clam soup, cream of tomato, or other thick soups, imparts a most delicious flavor. In making fish cutlets or frying fish of any kind, use Pompeian Olive Oil instead of butter or lard, and the taste will be improved one hundred per cent. Sweet potato croquettes, cold slaw, macaroni and other dishes are likewise made tastier when this oil is used. By reason of its sweet, nutty flavor, it should be used in preference to any other kind for salad dressings, especially where fruit salads are served. In scrambling eggs, a little cream and olive oil put in the frying pan gives you a dish better than anything you ever tried before. Ask your dealer for a book of Pompeian recipes, and when once you try this oil in cooking, you will never do without it. Pompeian Olive Oil is sold by druggists and grocers. Full one-half pint cans, 25 cents; full pint cans, 50 cents; full quart cans, 90 cents.

enacted in 1908 and amended last year and according to the law at the present time a person cannot start a fire to burn rubbish within 300 feet of any sprout or forest land. In issuing permits it is not necessary to confine the fire to an exact date. Village rubbish and debris fires should be given from one to three days. Parties burning fallows or brush land may need a little more extension of time. State reservations, city reservations, city water works departments, charitable institutions, county institutions and railroad section foremen should be granted an extension of 30 days, with the privilege of renewal providing they have complied with the law in controlling their fires.

Dear Sir: Permits are necessary for all fires that come within 300 feet of any building or within 300 feet of any sprout or forest land. In issuing permits it is not necessary to confine the fire to an exact date. Village rubbish and debris fires should be given from one to three days. Parties burning fallows or brush land may need a little more extension of time. FOR SUPERSTITIOUS PEOPLE

An English paper says: There is comfort for the superstitious. If you were asked to select an unlucky country you would not, doubtless, think of the United States. But almost every emblem and a good deal of the history of the United States is concerned with the ominous number 13. We know, of course, that at the time of the Declaration of Independence there were thirteen states and therefore thirteen stars and stripes on the flag. But now some ruthless person points out that there is a good deal more of the ill omened number in the national emblems. The motto "E Pluribus Unum" contains thirteen letters. The crown of Liberty has thirteen stars. The American eagle has a thunderbolt in one of its talons, which contains thirteen darts and in the other an olive branch of thirteen leaves. As if that were not enough, there are thirteen feathers in each of the eagle's wings.

GEE! I WISH I WAS BACK HOME!

THIRD DAY'S SESSION OF THE P. M. CONFERENCE

Rev. Mr. Singleton of Block Island,
R. I. Preached Sermon at
the Meeting Today

The third day's session of the Primitive Methodist conference, being held at the Lawrence Street church, opened this morning with several new delegates present. The session opened at 8.30 o'clock with devotional services, under the leadership of Walter Stowell. All present then joined in singing "The Story That Never Grows Old." A prayer was offered by Rev. A. Hesford, of North Tiverton, R. I. The sermon was preached by Rev. John Singleton, of Block Island, R. I.

The roll was then called, after which the minutes of yesterday's session were read and accepted. The committee on tracts reported, recommending the distribution of tracts in a larger way, as a means of reaching many who do not attend the church. The committee recommended that the pamphlet of Primitive Methodism, written by Rev. A. Humphries, be distributed. The conference accepted the report and voted unanimously to adopt the recommendation.

Rev. J. Mason, D. D., Journal agent, then read the report for the Eastern conference, showing that all bills were paid and that there is a good balance on hand. Rev. Dr. Mason was re-elected by unanimous vote.

The sub-book depot agent, Rev. J. G. Barlow, in the absence of B. R. Aconley, the agent reported on the book and publishing interests, showing a fair condition and hopeful outlook. The agent and sub-agent were unanimously re-elected for next year.

Revs. A. Humphries, John Mason and N. W. Matthews were re-elected as the book and publishing committee with Rev. J. G. Barlow, sub agent, and B. R. Aconley, agent.

The missionary secretary, Rev. T. M. Bateman, D. D., read the missionary report showing receipts amounting to $1375.67 and after all expenses and liabilities have been met, there will be a balance on hand. He reported that the work of colored missions under Rev. Dr. Ovelton, was fairly successful.

A resolution of condolence was passed, sympathizing with Rev. Dr. Ovelton, who recently lost his wife by death.

All then rose and sang a verse of "I am a Stranger Here."

Quite a discussion on the suggestion of forming a circuit of Silver Hook, a suburb of Providence and including Olneyville and Centredale was held.

The meeting adjourned with prayer at noon, after several announcements were made.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock another business session was held at which Rev. N. W. Matthews presided. At 3 o'clock the services included a discussion of the day. The temperance report was read. The address was given by Rev. Alfred King Collett.

Tonight at 7.30 o'clock there will be a missionary meeting, Chairman Edward H. Thatcher to preside.

Last Night's Session

Rev. John Mason's address at the Primitive Methodist conference at the Lawrence Street church yesterday afternoon was very interesting. He spoke on "Ministerial Education."

A very lengthy and interesting discussion then took place on the prescription before the conference of the plan to raise a fund of $1000 to assist young men in their theological training. The plan was unanimously endorsed by the conference.

The first report of the stationing committee was read and it was ordered back to the committee to be finally reported on at the close of the conference.

The business session was then adjourned. The Preachers' Benevolent association met immediately after the adjournment.

The services last evening opened with devotional services, under the leadership of Rev. John Proulx, M. A. After a hymn, "The Son of God Gave Forth to War," Rev. John Singleton gave the opening prayer. Rev. John T. Utton, pastor of the church, then read the conference notices and the devotional service was closed with an anthem by the choir, "O That I Had Wings Like a Dove."

The address of the evening was given by Rev. E. Humphries, D. D., who spoke on Methodism.

The first report of the stationing committee was read and it was ordered back to the committee to be finally reported on at the close of the conference.

The business session was then adjourned. The Preachers' Benevolent association met immediately after the adjournment.

The services last evening opened with devotional services, under the leadership of Rev. John Proulx, M. A. After a hymn, "The Son of God Gave Forth to War," Rev. John Singleton gave the opening prayer. Rev. John T. Utton, pastor of the church, then read the conference notices and the devotional service was closed with an anthem by the choir, "O That I Had Wings Like a Dove."

The address of the evening was given by Rev. E. Humphries, D. D., who spoke on Methodism.

PACKEY McFARLAND

SIMPLY TOYED WITH SCOTCH CHAMPION

FALL RIVER, May 10.—Packey McFarland, the Chicago whirlwind, gave a five-round exhibition here last night against Johnny Connolly, announced as the champion of Scotland. The bout was slated to go ten rounds, but at the end of the fifth round Connolly ran out of the ring.

He had been smashed all over the ring for 15 minutes and he concluded that he would not be made a mark any longer. He knew that he was outclassed and no one denied that fact. As soon as the bell rang at the end of the fifth, Connolly walked to his corner and then started to crawl through the ropes. He managed to get half-way through, when his manager caught hold of him and tried to keep him from starting for the dressing room. He persisted, however, and finally broke away from his trainer and ran for his clothes.

JUST TRY A TEN CENT BOX OF CASCARETS

Insures You for Months Against a Sick Headache, Biliousness, Constipation of a Bad Stomach

Put aside—just once—the Salts, Cathartic Pills, Castor Oils or purgative waters which merely force a passage way through the bowels, but do not thoroughly cleanse, freshen and purify these drainage or alimentary organs, and have no effect whatever upon the liver and stomach.

Keep your inside organs pure and fresh with Cascarets, which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the undigested, sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poisons in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women never have Headache, Biliousness, coated tongue, indigestion, Sour Stomach or Constipated bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Children just love to take them.

For the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn, sour stomach distress after eating and constipation STOMACH-RITE is the best medicine.

Haverhill Women Praise Courtney and Spring

HAVERHILL, May 10.—Frank Courtney, the right fielder of the Haverhill New England league club, and Michael Spring of Lowell, a former catcher of the local club, yesterday received a letter from Mrs. Mary Miner and her daughter, Miss Cora Miner, a school teacher, in which the two women thanked the two baseball players for their courage in stopping a runaway on Winter street Wednesday.

Mrs. Miner and her daughter, who live on Broadway, were driving down Winter street and when near Primrose the horse stumbled and fell. Getting up quickly, the animal bolted down the hill. Near Harrison street the carriage stalled and Mrs. Miner pitched forward, being rendered semi-conscious by striking the dasher.

Miss Miner, realizing the danger, dropped the reins and seized her father, holding her in the carriage and preventing her from falling out.

Courtney and Spring were standing on the sidewalk near Hyde street and seeing the runaway and the two women helpless in the carriage they rushed out into the street, Courtney being struck by the shaft. Spring ran along with the animal and finally brought him to a halt, while Courtney assisted the two women by leaping into the carriage and grabbing them.

REPORT ON RICHESON NOT YET RECEIVED

COUNSEL MORSE SEES PRISONER

No Special Session of Council Called

BOSTON, May 10.—Had the usual procedure been followed, Clarence V. T. Richeson, the murderer of Miss Ayla Linnell, would have awakened today in a cell in the state close to the chamber where he is condemned to die during the week of May 15th but postponement of executive action pending reports of his family by certain experts has delayed his transfer from the county jail.

Gov. Foss stated today that he had not heard from the alienists employed to examine Richeson and until those reports were in hand he would take no action in the case. Several days ago the governor requested Sheriff John Quinn, the custodian of Richeson, not to be hasty in transferring the former minister to the care of Warden Birdsey at the state prison. Sheriffs and wardens usually follow the suggestions of the governor and at noon today Richeson was still in jail under close watch by a guard and a prison attendant.

Copies of the morning papers are furnished Richeson and his counsel, William A. Morse, sees him daily. It is expected that the governor will receive the reports of the alienists by tomorrow and that he will then have sufficient data on which to make up his mind whether he will submit the case to the executive council for action on commutation of the death sentence. No special session of the council has been called and the next regular meeting is on Wednesday, four days before the day set for the execution.

BOSTON, May 10.—Half a million

STAINS

Removed With CARBONOL

A XLE grease, oil and grime, on cloth or on woodwork, are readily removed with Carbonol. Carbonol is a powerful liquid derived from coal tar. It dissolves grease and kills germs. It will remove the most obstinate stains which the ordinary cleaning and dyeing establishments give up as hopeless. It will brighten dingy rugs, dissolving the grease of the wool which makes them so hard to clean, and thus loosening the dirt and revealing the fresh original colors.

It will make floors and woodwork look cleaner than you will ever get them with ordinary scrubbing.

Carbonol is a powerful disinfectant. If you spray it on garbage, for example, the odor of the garbage will immediately disappear and flies will keep away.

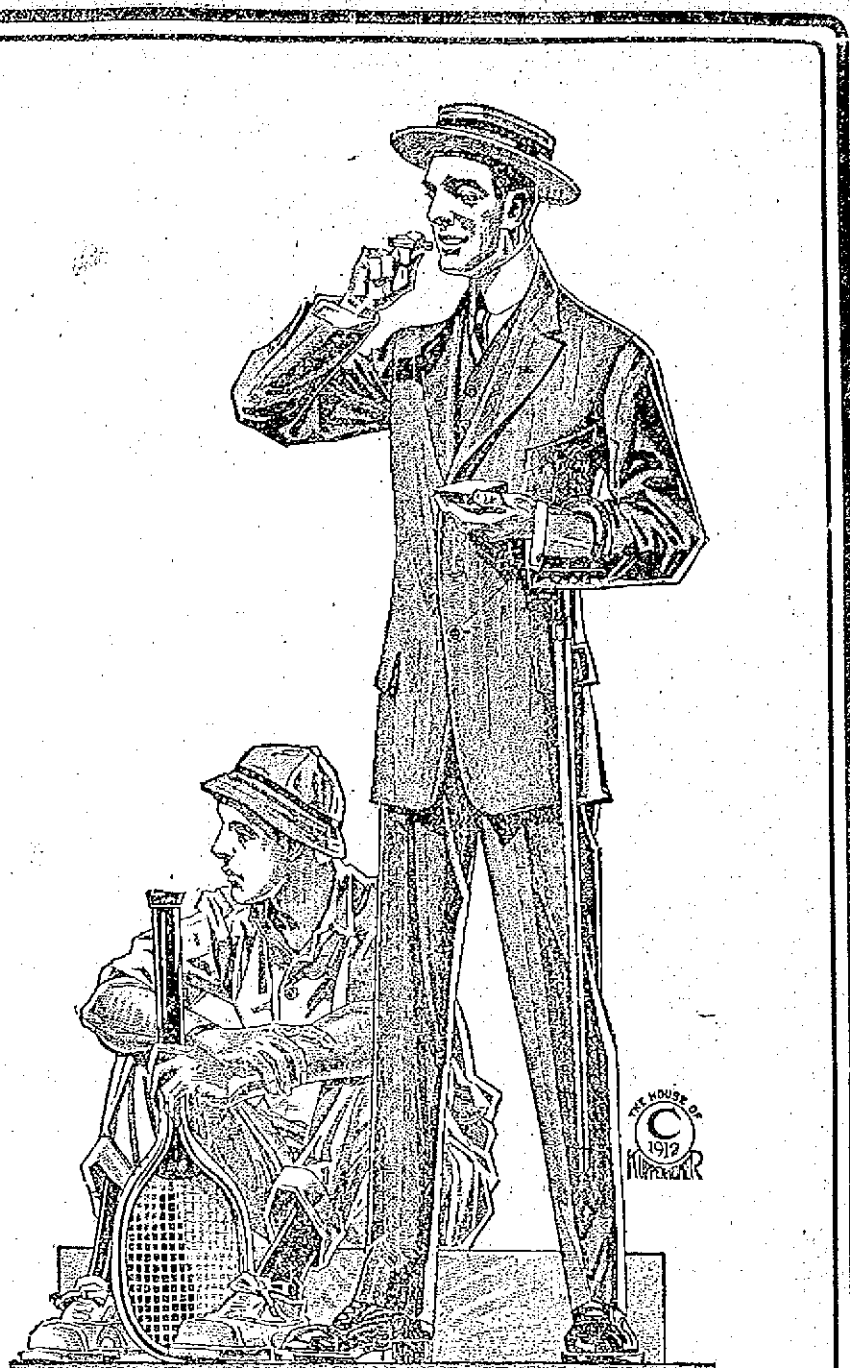

It will destroy musty smells in dark corners and closets.

As an antiseptic for personal use, it will relieve tender aching feet.

Use Carbonol wherever you need a powerful, harmless cleanser to dissolve grease, kill germs and to suppress odors.

We will send you a sample bottle free on request.

THE SUFFRAGETTES WANT WOMAN'S POLICE FORCE FOR NEXT PARADE

NEW YORK, May 10.—Suffragettes who have been criticizing the police protection afforded them in connection with their big parade last week have submitted to Commissioner Waldo a plan for a woman's police force for the suffrage parade next year. This plan, they think, will do away with the conditions against which the women marchers complained after the demonstration this year. If the scheme is carried out 5,000 women will be organized to police the parade. The women officers would be dressed in white tailor made suits with white or black helmets and would wear a shield in red, white and blue enamel bearing the words "Woman Suffrage Police."

A meeting of the Children of Mary sodality of the Sacred Heart parish will be held after the May devotionals in the church this evening. The meeting will take place in the school hall and it is expected that all the members will be present, as important business will be transacted including arrangements for the May 25th festival to be held under the auspices of the sodality.

HOGAN—The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Hogan took place this morning at 8:30 o'clock from her late home, 70 Andrews street and was largely attended. A funeral high mass was celebrated in the Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock by Rev. Fr. Wood. The Gregorian chant was sung by the choir. Mr. John Kelly, organist, burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery where Rev. Fr. Wood read the prayers at the grave. The bearers were Messrs. P. Conroy, P. Farrell, Bart. Gallagher, John Turner, Maurice Raleigh and Mr. Cuff. The funeral was in charge of Undertaker Charles H. Molloy of Lowell.

STOCK MARKET

WAS STRONG AT THE CLOSE THIS AFTERNOON

Prices Went to High Level in the Final Hour—U. S. Steel, U. P., Lehigh Valley Showed Special Strength—Other Features of the Day's Trading

NEW YORK, May 10.—Decided strength was shown by the stock market at the opening today. Amal, Copper and Missouri Pac. rose a point each with material fractional gains in United States Steel; American Smelting and some of the standard railway shares. Small declines were recorded by Can. Pac. and Penna.

Prices made further improvements in the first hour with especial strength in United States Steel, U. P., Lehigh Valley and other standard shares. Illinois Central recovered almost two points from yesterday's acute weakness but failed to hold all its gains. American Can. common moved up to 41 1/2, new high record, and the undertone of the general list reflected quiet but effective support. American Tobacco jumped 1/2.

A large part of the early rise was lost in the second hour, when the market became duller and more hesitating. United States Steel and U. P. fell back to opening prices, while Reading and St. Paul went under. Am. Can. common and pf. went higher than before, but the dealings in the other specialties were perfunctory.

Business fell away during the noon hour and price changes were meaningless. Reports of another advance in finished products by a leading subsidiary of the steel corporation failed to stimulate the list in the slightest degree.

Aside from a brisk rise in Lehigh Valley, which rose to 170 1/2, and further gains in American Beet Sugar and Bethlehem Steel pf., American Can. pf. and Am. Steel Spring, the second hour of the afternoon was dull and unimportant.

The market closed strong. Prices ascended to the high level of the day in the final hour with especial strength in United States Steel, U. P., Lehigh Valley and some of the highly speculative specialties.

Boston Market

BOSTON, May 10.—Local copper stocks continued strong today but the trading early in the day was along narrow lines. At noon Calumet & Arizona was the feature, advancing 2 to 7 1/2.

"Chairman of the Roosevelt committee and clerk of the supreme court.

"Minneapolis, Minn.

"I wish it had been possible for me to go again to Minnesota. Unfortunately it is physically impossible. Nine states have now held presidential primaries, or their equivalent—North Dakota, Wisconsin, Nebraska, Oregon, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Maryland, Illinois and Pennsylvania.

"These states, the only ones in which there has been a free choice for the expression of the popular will, are to be represented by 256 delegates in the Chicago convention. Forty of these delegates are instructed for President Taft and 216 are against him. He has carried but two of the nine states—New Hampshire and Massachusetts—while in Massachusetts the Roosevelt delegates-at-large were elected by over twice the majority which Mr. Taft obtained on a fractional vote. In Maryland the majority against Mr. Taft was about the same, proportionately, as the majorities for him in Massachusetts and New Hampshire. In the other seven states the majorities against him range from two to one to twenty to one. In all the states together about three out of every four of the republicans who voted at the primaries were against Mr. Taft.

If primaries could be held in all the states there would undoubtedly be no substantial variation from these figures and Mr. Taft could by no possibility have 200 votes in the Chicago convention. Mr. Taft's chance of re-nomination lies solely in securing at Chicago delegates who will misrepresent the will of the people. He can get these delegates not in the primary states but in the convention states where delegates are chosen under the old system and even in these states he can only get them where the state is ruled by a boss. After a prolonged experience of me as president practically all of the big bosses in the republican party dislike me so heartily that they opposed Mr. Taft's nomination because I favored it. They were afraid that Mr. Taft would give them the same kind of trouble that I had given them. After three years and a half experience of Mr. Taft since he has been elected these men turn around and favor his re-nomination. They were opposed to me four years ago and they are opposed to me now. They were opposed to Mr. Taft four years ago when they had not tried him as president and they heartily support him now. These men include, for

LYONS GUILTY OF LARCENY

ORDERED TO PAY $25 FINE

Cases of Two Strikers Who Were Charged With Intimidation Were Continued

William Lyons appeared in police court this morning to answer to a complaint charging him with the larceny of a gold ring, several gold pins and a shirt, the property of Michael Zyzenowski. He entered a plea of guilty and after a hearing he was found guilty and a fine of $25 was imposed.

According to the testimony offered the two men worked on a farm belonging to George B. Greenwood and the defendant rifled the complainant's trunk and then went to Boston where he was arrested by officers of station 1. Officer Martin Conway of Billerica went to Boston yesterday and returned with the man late in the afternoon.

Assault and Battery

Sergio Correira was charged with assault and battery on Christos Neliolas but by agreement of counsel the case was continued until Monday morning. It is alleged that the defendant entered the Tremont & Suffolk mill Tuesday morning and assaulted the complainant and then left. Subsequently he returned and it is said again assaulted the boy.

Drunken Offenders

George H. Whitney who resides in Westford was before the court this morning. He admitted that he was guilty of drunkenness but he was very penitent and wished to be given a chance to do better in the future, but the court decided that he had had enough of chances and a sentence to the state farm was imposed. He appeared.

Frank Lovessque was sentenced to four months in jail and James M. Dane was given a sentence of one month to the same institution. Thomas Nolan was fined $3. There were several releases.

Intimidation Charged

Louis Banos and Christos Prasas were in police court this morning on a complaint charging them with intimidating an employee of a corporation, it being alleged that they tried to prevent Thomas Spanos from going to work in the Merrimack mills. At the request of counsel the case was continued for one week.

The case of Christos Prasas charged with intimidating George Cousopoulos and Ellen Poulos was continued until the same date.

Juvenile Session

James Bathe, John Butler and Raymond Grimsbury, three boys, who last week mounted the roof of the Merrimack Square theatre and ripped lead off the building, were brought before Judge Pickman in the juvenile session of the police court this morning. They were charged with being delinquents and after the cases had been heard and they were found guilty they were placed on probation until June 7.

MAN 63 YEARS OLD

MARRIES THE WIDOW OF HIS SON

TOLEDO, May 10.—John Baird, 63, of Zanesville, a telegraph operator, married yesterday the widow of his own son, Mrs. Mary H. Baird, thirty-six. The laws of Ohio do not prohibit such a union.

"We shall be happy," says Baird, and in these words justifies his violation of biblical laws.

"Both of them shall surely be put to death. They have wrought confusion, their blood shall be upon them," says the bible.

John C. Baird says: "We can see no harm in it. I always liked my son's wife, and since his death and the demise of my first wife the affection has ripened into love."

BY A SPECIALIST.

Thousands of people suffer from baldness and falling hair who, having tried nearly every advertised hair tonic and hair-grower without result, have resigned themselves to baldness and its attendant discomfort. Yet their case is not hopeless; the following simple home prescription has made hair grow after years of baldness, and is also unequalled for restoring gray hair to its original color, stopping hair from falling out, and destroying the dandruff germ. It will not make the hair greasy, and can be put up by any druggist: Bay Rum, 5 ounces; Lavona de Composee, 2 ounces; Menthol Crystals, one-half ounce. If you wish it perfumed, add half to one teaspoonful of To-Kalon Perfume which unites perfectly with the other ingredients. This preparation is highly recommended by physicians and specialists, and is absolutely harmless as it contains none of the poisonous wood alcohol so frequently found in hair tonics. Do not apply to the face or where hair is not desired.

Before publication we presented this prescription to Hall & Lyon Co. of this city, and they state that they have filled it many times for their patrons who report most astonishing results from its use.

Ninety Killed and Many Injured
—Mexican Central Railroad Held
by the Federal Outposts

EL PASO, Texas, May 10.—In a telegram office improvised in a box car on a desert 10 miles north of Torreon, Gen. Victoriano Huerta, commander of the federal army of northern Mexico, transmitted today by telegraph to an

Associated Press representative here news of military developments of the last 24 hours. The box car stood a few miles from the town of Bermejillo. The wire had been set up direct to the federal camp, being routed from El Paso via Laredo, Texas, Monterey and

needs constant attention—you can't gargle
during business
hours.

MOST people consider sore throat all too lightly. They forget this annoying, painful germ infection may easily develop into more serious troubles.

You know how unsatisfactory and inconvenient it is to try to use a gargle. Not only is it a nauseating, lack-merit method, but you cannot consistently use a gargle during business or social hours.

Sore throat requires careful and constant attention—the remedial agent, in the first place, must be one that can be applied at any and all times. And more important still, it must get at the germs that lie ensconced in the deepest folds of the throat—the point of infection. This a gargle cannot do under any circumstances—at best it is superficial relief—and sore throat requires something more effective and searching.

Formamint

is the one preparation that fully meets the requirements. Convenience itself—take it any time, any place. The pleasant-tasting tablet, when sucked like candy, releases its powerful, yet harmless germicide, which mixes with the saliva and is carried over and around the infected membranes—hunting out the germs—no matter how deeply imbedded in the throat cavities—destroying them and putting an end to the infection.

You owe it to yourself to use Formamint—not only when you have sore throat—but when you suspect you are getting it.

"There are many ways that you can save money," he said, "and I think that in a very few years you could clean up your debt."

Mr. Rex said there was one department at city hall that might be dispensed with, but he refused to name the department.

In reply to a question by Alderman Barrett, Mr. Rex said that a clerk working on books should not be asked to work more than seven hours a day. Alderman Barrett said he thought that the trouble in Lowell is that there is too much expense connected with department heads, and that too many political jobs are given for past favors. "The increase in the administration charges of departments" is a big feature of our trouble," he said.

Mr. Rex said that men were not elected to the legislature nor to municipal councils because of their knowledge of affairs.

"No, I don't suppose that is why we were elected," said Mr. Cummings. "You men are working conscientiously to undo the tangles and I hope the people appreciate that fact, but you have an awful job on your hands," said Mr. Rex.

Copy of the Act

On motion of Alderman Barrett it was voted to have the mayor, commissioner of finance and city solicitor present to the legislature on Monday morning a copy of the act to authorize the city of Lowell to refund certain notes.

The act authorizing the city to borrow $700,000 was drawn up by City Solicitor Hennessy and reads as follows:

An Act to Authorize the City of Lowell to Refund Certain Notes.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Section 1. For the purpose of paying certain outstanding notes amounting to seven hundred thousand dollars, the city of Lowell is hereby authorized to borrow the said sum and to issue notes or bonds therefor. Such notes or bonds shall be for one thousand dollars each, in registered or coupon form, payable thirty-five a year, in the years nineteen hundred and thirteen to nineteen hundred and thirty-three, both inclusive. The notes or bonds shall be signed by the municipal council of the city, and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding four per cent. per annum. The money required to pay the interest on said notes or bonds in each year, and that part of the principal which becomes due in that year, shall be raised by taxation in the same manner in which the other expenses of the city are provided for.

Section 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Mayor O'Donnell said that Mr. Rex should be present at the hearing before the committee on cities and on motion of Mr. Barrett, who said that the hearing should be held in this city, it was voted to authorize the commissioner of finance to have Mr. Rex present at the hearing.

At 12:50 o'clock the council adjourned to tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Torreon, around about circuit eastward of more than 1,000 miles. This was necessary by the seizure of all telegraphic lines directly south of here by the rebels.

From the improvised telegraph office General Huerta talked enthusiastically of the battle to come.

"Yesterday, Thursday, General Rabago completely routed 1,000 rebels at Zaragoza and Tlahuillo, both near Torreon," said General Huerta. "The rebels lost 90 dead and many wounded while our loss was seven dead and a few wounded. The rebels were driven back in hasty flights and are pursued by cavalry under General Villa."

"On Wednesday we heard that a detachment of one thousand rebels were advancing on us and we organized a column which went by railroad under General Rabago. To cut off retreat we sent overland volunteer and regular cavalry from the forces of Villa."

"They arrived about 6 a. m. Thursday and attacked the rebels. General Rabago arrived and flanked the rebels. He had artillery and machine guns. The fight lasted six hours. We completely routed the enemy. Our losses were two killed and seven wounded."

"A telegram has just been brought to me from General Tracy Aubert at Cuatro Ciénegas which says the rebel chief Salazar was completely routed and is running away towards Sierra Mojada."

Couriers from the advance guard arrived at this juncture, according to General Huerta and informed him that the federal outposts held the Mexican Central railroad up to within 12 miles of Bermejillo.

No communication was had here with the rebel front early today but the liberal officials conceded they met stubborn resistance in the initial skirmishing.

BURGLAR PROOF DEVICE

A very simple window fastening can be arranged to give additional security against burglars. About an inch from the frame on the right of every window a small hole may be bored in the overlapping sashes, going directly through the inner and lower sash and almost through the outer. When the window is shut a three-inch wire nail must be pushed into this hole until it is buried to the head. This nail should be snugly fitted in the hole, but capable of being easily withdrawn with the fingers. The ordinary cash lock can be prised open with the burglar's jimmy, but with the addition of the wire nail that trick is impossible.

Boston Wholesale Millinery Company

Begs to announce to the Women of Lowell, the OPENING OF ITS LOWELL SALESROOMS Tomorrow, Saturday, May 11th, and cordially invites all to come and see a display of the

Greatest Millinery Bargains Ever Offered in This City

On this occasion will be featured complete lines of the Newest Millinery Fashions for late Spring and Summer wear—an exhibit which we believe cannot be found elsewhere in Lowell at the present. Whether you intend purchasing now or later, you should see these for authentic information as to the styles that are to be correct. Open at 8.30 a. m. Saturday, at 212 Merrimack Street.

To The Public and the Milliners:

We have come here to Lowell for various reasons. We believe that in establishing a permanent salesroom at your very door we will not only increase our already large business in this section but will in addition secure a stronger foothold in Northern Massachusetts that will enable us to carry out a number of plans now projected. With the establishment of this salesroom we also do away with the usual system of selling through traveling salesmen and obviate the great selling expense which this system entails. We desire to notify all milliners that after May 15th we will have no salesmen traveling through this section and no one will be authorized to solicit patronage on our behalf.

A Unique Plan of Selling:

Under our system of selling direct at wholesale prices to the public and milliners alike, we now offer to the small milliner and consumer the opportunity to save 33 1-3 per cent. to 40 per cent. on the prevailing store prices. This important saving is made possible by the fact that we sell for cash only and have no long standing accounts or bad bills to consider in fixing our prices. Then again, we operate salesrooms in nearly all the important cities of New England and have an outlet for merchandise that enables us to buy at prices that in many instances are fully one-third lower than the largest retail houses. You can well imagine that with these advantages we are amply able to back up our claim that we save you one-third, at least, on every purchase. No secret code marks or concealed price quotations. Absolutely one price to both the milliners and the public. Exchanges made on goods returned in satisfactory condition. Refunds cheerfully made. Your money back if you are not satisfied.

IRISH HOME RULE BILL PASSES SECOND READING

Wild Enthusiasm When a Vote of 372 to 271 Was Announced Last Night

All Leaders Joined in the Final Day's Debate—
The Majority in House of Commons for the Bill Was Increased

LONDON, May 10.—The government carried the Home Rule bill on its second reading in the house of commons last night by a majority of 101, as against 91 for the first reading. The vote was 372 to 271.

It was the most largely attended house of the present parliament. Both sides had done their utmost to obtain every available vote. Mr. Balfour, former opposition leader, and Mr. Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, returned from Weymouth in order to be present. The announcement of the figures showing an increased majority occasioned enthusiastic demonstrations on the government side. The prime minister was given a great ovation on leaving the house, with his wife and daughter, by the crowd assembled outside.

John Redmond on leaving parliament with his wife, shortly after Mr. Asquith, was also loudly cheered, many Irishmen in the crowd singing "A Nation Once Again."

The bill was formally referred to a committee of the whole house, but as Home Rule and Welsh disestablishment are being taken concurrently it will now be the turn of the Welsh bill.

It is not expected the committee stage of the Home Rule bill will be reached until after Whitsuntide and it will probably consume a couple of months even with a liberal application of the closure rules, because the opposition are preparing an endless list of amendments and will adopt every possible means to obstruct the measure.

Windup of the Debate

Premier Asquith wound up the debate for the government in a brief and forceful speech, which aroused great enthusiasm. No serious attempt, he said, had been made by the opposition to meet the argument with which he opened the discussion—the character and persistence of the Irish demand.

Had the demand been made under similar conditions by any community of their own race throughout the empire, there was not a man on either side who would not say that it was entitled to consideration.

A demand so persistent, continued the prime minister, was one which a democratic parliament in these days was bound to assent to. If the Irish vote was eliminated in the house of commons, there still would be a majority of 50 or 60 for home rule.

Referring to the rebels in Ulster, Mr. Asquith said that he believed the British people just and generous. They detested intolerance and persecution in any form, but they were not the people to be frightened out of what they believed to be just by language of intimidation.

The government had asked repeatedly what further safeguards were desired, but the only answer of the opposition was that they would receive from Ulster nothing but unyielding and uncompromising resistance.

In conclusion Premier Asquith said that the claim of Ireland was of paramount urgency, because there was no part of the United Kingdom to which the imperial parliament owed so long and so deep a debt.

Field Day in the House

It was a field day for both sides, which marshalled its heaviest artillery just before the vote on the second reading. John Redmond and Bonar Law preceded the premier and were at their best.

Mr. Redmond said he had been a Federalist all his life and welcomed the present bill as the first step toward a great system of federation all around. Nationalists, he said, accepted the bill as a final settlement of the international quarrel between England and Ireland and, when saying this, he spoke not only for Irishmen in Ireland but for those in the United States, Canada, New Zealand and Australasia.

From the point of view of foreign policy and military strength of Great Britain, home rule, in Mr. Redmond's opinion, was the most urgent step that could be taken for safeguarding the British Isles.

Opposed by Bonar Law

Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, assailed the bill fiercely. The government, he declared, was "setting up customs houses, not to create a union, but to destroy the union which already existed. He denounced the safeguards in the bill as utterly futile, condemned the financial provisions and drew a gloomy picture of Ireland's future under home rule.

Every new parliament of inexperienced men, the speaker said, had tried to get the millennium in a hurry. The new Irish parliament would launch all sorts of schemes for improving the condition of the country and borrow money for the purpose.

As a result the imperial parliament would become liable for a huge capital sum it would not have sanctioned and for expenditures over which it had absolutely no control. He concluded by predicting that the government could never carry the bill through unless it was first submitted to the judgment of the country.

Last of the Conservatives

Curiously, the second reading of the home rule bill coincides with the disappearance of the word conservatives as the official designation of the Tory party.

A conference of the conservative and Lib. Unionist parties yesterday finally resolved upon a fusion of the two parties under the title of "National Unionist association." Thus the liberal unionists who seceded from Gladstone on his espousal of home rule now become part and parcel of the Tory party.

RAD GRAHAM VISITS MANAGER HUGHEY JENNINGS

Lowell Man Called on Detroit Leader Wednesday

"Rad" Graham, the well known local baseball fan, went to Boston yesterday and paid a visit to his old friend, Hughey Jennings, manager of the Detroit Tigers. "Rad" is well acquainted with the Tigers' director, and while talking to the leader, the manager of the Boston club, dropped in. The Lowell man made a great impression on the clever Tip and the latter in writing of the visitor in this morning's Globe says:

"The visitor said: 'How are you, Mr. Jennings?' Jennings took his hand and replied: 'I am very well, thank you. How are you?'"

"One of the boys came down with me to see the game," said the visitor, "and all want to see you before they go back." To which Jennings replied, with a smile: "I'll be very glad to see the boys."

Hughey, still puzzled as to the identity of the man, answered: "One of the best pictures that I ever had taken."

The scrapbook was full of complimentary letters of Jennings, and included was a letter from the Tigers' training camp. Then the manager got wise. "So you got my letter all right," remarked Jennings by this time having remembered sending some one a letter in this section. However, it was five minutes before Jennings placed his caller, and he then asked to be remembered to "the doctor."

As Jennings and I walked away he said: "Always make a point of answering letters, no matter from where or who they come from. Now there is some baseball fan who evidently thinks well of me, and I appreciate that kind of friend."

Ball players of the Hugh Jennings stamp have done much for the game in this country. A fighter from Fighterville on the ball field, a classic in his line of work, and simple as a child when off duty, Jennings has developed the art of holding his friends, knowing that a combination of true friends can surmount all difficulties in time.

Ty Cobb is up to his old tricks. Off to a bad start, the Tiger boy is now pulling off the same sensational stunts that have made him famous in seasons gone by. In the first few games of the present campaign Tyrus had a batting average of about .135, but of late he has crept up until he has a stick percentage of .395. If he keeps up his present gait he will probably head the league in a couple of weeks. Not alone is he whaling the ball hard, but his base running in the last half dozen games is the talk of the baseball world and will be for years to come. Three times this year he has stolen home while the pitcher was winding up to deliver the ball. On April 20 while Pitcher Gregg of Cleveland was going through his contortions Ty dashed for home and slid safely over the rubber before Catcher Easterly could catch the ball. May 1 in a battle with Chicago Cobb went from first to third on an infield out and then stole home on Pitcher Benz, Catcher Brock dropping the ball. On May 4 in a contest with St. Louis Cobb again pilfered home plate. He was caught between second and third, but escaped and advanced a base. While Shortstop Wallace was retrieving the sphere Tyrus dashed for home. Catcher Kitchell got a perfect throw, but he dropped the ball, and Cobb was safe. In the game with Chicago May 1 the Georgia Peach scored the winning run of a ten inning game by some of the quickest thinking and acting ever seen on the diamond. As he was running to third base he spied the ball, thrown there to head him off, lying the base line or near it. Diving feet first into the leather, with malice aforethought, he knocked it to the Detroit bench and scored in a common center. At the end of the last campaign experts said Cobb had reached the height of his career, but they made that same prediction at the end of other seasons. Judging by his great playing early this year, Tyrus will eclipse his 1911 work, which, by the way, was the greatest ever performed on the diamond by any ball player.

HALL WON FROM NELSON IN THE SEVENTH ROUND

In Main Bout At Lowell Social and Athletic Club. "Battle Royal" a Farce

The meeting of the Lowell Social and Athletic club was well attended last evening, and a very good program was given. The main bout between Joe Nelson of Lawrence and Charlie Hall, colored, of Boston, scheduled to go twelve rounds, ended in the seventh when Nelson's seconds realizing that their man had enough, threw in the sponge. The exhibition was very fast while it lasted. The first round was very lively and those present after seeing the way both started were convinced that it would not go the limit. Nelson landed the first blow and then ducked. He did most of the leading in this session, but Hall was there with the come back. The round ended with Nelson having a little advantage. The second round was also very lively and both sent home some telling blows. Hall began in this round to use his left, and he put in some good ones. The colored boy had a shade in the second. The third opened with Nelson getting the jump. He sent in several to the stomach and kidney and both were fighting hard. Hall went to the floor, when he slipped, but he came right back and went after his man. He sent in several left hooks that staggered the Lawrence boy. As the round ended Nelson sent in a good left uppercut, and Hall came back with one to the solar plexus and Nelson was groggy. In the fourth and fifth Hall was the aggressor and gave a fine performance of foot-work and he also used both hands with good effect. The sixth round was also Hall's and in the seventh and last, the fighting was very hard. Hall was sent to the floor and Nelson while groggy, hit his man while down. Hall jumped up and sailed into his man with a shower of blows. At this time the towel went in from Nelson's corner and the bout was over.

The "battle royal" between five colored men was all right for a parlor. The darkies got in with big bed ticks and landed at one another and when one would go down he was taken to the dressing room. They went down in quick order. They first few seconds the exhibition was funny and much enjoyed. After that the performers did not stand in with the members and they were glad when it was over.

The preliminaries were very good. In the first young Evans of Swede Village defeated Young Scott of the Acre in the third, and the other, between Young O'Connell of Davis square and Young Keleher of Belvidere resulted in a victory for the latter in the second. Billy Gardner refereed.

BOBBIE KEELER

NOW MANAGER OF FLYNN, BOYLE AND DOYLE

Bobbie Keeler of this city, who is now looking after the boxing interests of Eddie Flynn, the clever Lynn lightweight, is negotiating with Matchmaker Gardner to have his man meet the winner of the main bout at the Lowell Social and Athletic club next week. Keeler also has charge of Young Boyin and Tommy Doyle, both of Lowell. Keeler himself was in the ring for some time and is well acquainted with its many fine points. He plans a busy season for his men. On May 30 Keeler will take Flynn, Boyle and Doyle to New York where he has matches for the three boys. Flynn will meet Kid Burns, who a short time ago boxed Packer MacFarland.

HOGAN SAYS McFARLAND IS BEST LIGHTWEIGHT

"One Round" Hogan says that he considers Packey McFarland one of the best men in his class in this country and follows this up by stating that he would favor McFarland in a bout with Wolgast, the lightweight champion. Only natural. McFarland beat Hogan easily, so "One Round" has concluded that none other than one of the very best men in the business could do that.

McFarland is on record as to fighting. He says he isn't a fighter, but a boxer; that he doesn't intend to be brutal with an opponent, that he doesn't want to get marked up himself and that he intends to preserve all his fighting spirit for his battle with Ad Wolgast, if the champion will ever meet him for the title. "Wolgast," Packey says, "is the man I will do everything I can do to defeat—to knock out. The others I am always content to outpoint."

THE LOWELL AND LAWRENCE GAME

Ended in Third Inning Owing to Heavy Rain

LAWRENCE, May 10.—The Lowell-Lawrence game was called in the third inning yesterday afternoon with the score 2 to 1 in favor of the Lawrence team. The rain was the cause of it all. When the game was halted Lawrence had two men on bases with two out. Wolgast was doing the twirling for Lowell and Howard was on the mound for the home team. Umpire Stafford twice stopped the game owing to the weather and the last time he did not wait the required 30 minutes, but sent the men to the club house.

DIAMOND NOTES

At Haverhill today.
In the short time that yesterday's game was in progress some very good plays were pulled off. In the first of the third, De Groot and Conney executed a fine double play.

BOSTON NATIONALS WON FROM CHICAGO

Score 2 to 1—Hess Allowed One Hit

CHICAGO, May 10.—Pitcher Hess of Boston let Chicago down with one hit yesterday and the visitors won the final game of the series here, 2 to 1. Not a Chicagoan reached second base until the eighth. Smith allowed but four hits to Boston. A decision in the eighth was questioned by Tinker and Chance, and Umpire Bush ordered both to the club house. Score:

Without proper treatment these poisons increase, the inflamed joints swell and the patient becomes a cripple. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People build up the blood and enable it to cast out the rheumatic poisons with the natural secretions of the body. Every sufferer who does not try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is neglecting the most hopeful means of recovery.

If you are interested in the cure of rheumatism write today for a copy of our booklet, "Building Up the Blood." It is sent free on request. Send no money or stamps. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold everywhere or will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, seven cents per box (for $3.50 by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE MADE BY PRISONER

Davis Swam Waters of
Shirley Gut

SUFFERED GREATLY FROM EXPOSURE

Was Exhausted When He Reached Shore

BOSTON, May 10.—Charles Davis, alias Hollingsworth, made his fourth unsuccessful attempt early today to escape from the house of correction at Deer Island. Davis stole out of the hospital and dived into the swiftly running waters of Shirley Gut, in which few men have been able to keep afloat. The prisoner mastered the waves and eddies and finally landed on the Winthrop shore, opposite the "Island." Exhausted by the struggle and suffering intensely from exposure to the cold morning air, Davis fell prostrate upon the beach. Later he was found in a vacant house by John M. Simpson, a lumber dealer, and Harry Knox. Knox notified two prison officers who were searching for the fugitive and the man was taken back to Deer Island.

SCHOOL BUILDING TO BE USED FOR POLITICAL GATHERINGS

JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 10.—A majority of the New Jersey board of education has agreed that the campaign addresses of "Rat" and Roosevelt are "highly educational" in character. The question came up at a special meeting called to consider applications from representatives of the two rival republican candidates for the use of the local high school.

Two of the school directors—both democrats—were opposed to allowing the school buildings to be used for political gatherings, saying that to their mind it would establish a precedent and open the way for the holding of political gatherings in all the school buildings. They were overruled, however, by the other directors, who voted that the meetings would be highly educational and therefore proper.

COL. JARA BEATEN
ASUNCION, Paraguay, May 10.—Government troops today defeated a large, revolutionary army under the command of the former president of the republic, Col. Alvaro Jara in the neighborhood of the Tibicuary. The government troops were commanded by the minister of war.

ONE MAN IS DEAD FOUR OTHERS INJURED

By Collapse of Building
in Boston

BOSTON, May 10.—A portion of a five story building under construction on Edinboro street collapsed today, burying five Italian laborers in the ruins. The injured men were dug out from under the debris and rushed to a nearby hospital, where one of them died a few minutes later. The other four victims suffered painful injuries but are expected to recover.

KING'S DAUGHTERS MEET
LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 10.—More than 200 delegates and as many visitors were in attendance when the first international convention of the King's Daughters began in Louisville this morning. Here, during the 25 years of the order's existence, the central council has attended to all the business of the organization.

Revision of the constitution and the transfer of records from the council to the convention are the principal business features of the meeting.

WARNED TO FLEE FROM FLOOD DISTRICT

Many Refuse to Leave
Their Homes

THINK DANGER IS NOT IMMINENT

Health Authorities Fear
Spread of Disease

NEW ROADS, La., May 10.—Flood waters from breaches in the Mississippi levees that already have carried misery to thousands of people of Louisiana, continued to creep southward today and now this town, with its rich outlying country is threatened.

All people living in this territory have been warned to flee. Many, however, refusing to believe danger imminent declare they will not abandon their homes. Consequently government and state relief officials are preparing for a hard campaign of rescue work. Boats are being gathered here and crews are being drilled. It seems only a matter of a few hours before this entire territory will be inundated. This means the state and the government will have to care for thousands more homeless. Most of the flood water is coming from the great gash in the levee at Fort St. Vrain. This breach is 2000 feet wide. Water pours through it with the speed of a millrace. The flood is strongest through Pointe Coupee parish, where thousands of fertile sugar cane acres have been inundated.

This is the third successive calamity that the people of the Pointe Coupee district have been compelled to face. First came the hull vessel that destroyed the cotton crops. The people, disheartened turned to planting cane. Now the flood is spread over the entire parish. Noting but ruin will be left in its wake. Crops this year cannot be planted.

A new menace appeared in the flood today when carcasses of hundreds of animals came floating in the back water between New Roads and Terras. They can neither be buried nor burned. The health authorities are afraid they will bring disease. Vultures are doing their duty, however, and they probably will dispose of the nuisance.

THE BOSSES WITH TAFT

Continued
Instance Mr. Gallinger in New Hampshire, Mr. Aldrich in Rhode Island, Mr. Penrose in Pennsylvania, Mr. Keating in Indiana, Mr. Lorimer in Illinois, Messrs. Guggenheim and Evans in Colorado, Mr. Calhoun and the Southern Pacific railroad crowd in California and the Amalgamated Copper crowd in Montana and in your own state they include Mr. Smith and Mr. Tawney. The fight is a nation-wide fight of the plain people against the bosses. There is just one candidate whom it is possible to nominate against the bosses and that is myself.

Every vote for every other candidate from now on is in reality a vote for Mr. Taft. The fight is against the bosses in Minnesota, as it is everywhere else. A vote for Mr. Taft is a vote for the bosses; it is a vote for Lorimer for Penrose, for Guggenheim, for Calhoun, and for all the rest of them and it is a vote for these men whether it is cast in Minnesota or in Massachusetts, or in Ohio, New Jersey, or California. I became a candidate only when I became convinced that no other progressive candidate could by any possibility be nominated against Mr. Taft. The contest has gone so far as to make it now evident that I certainly can be nominated against Mr. Taft and to that effect I shall be nominated or else a reactionary will be nominated. It is also evident that not only every progressive republican but every man who believes in decency and honesty in public life is against his rule and for the gauntlet rule of the people and is for the elimination of special privilege and for efficient endeavor to secure social and industrial justice can achieve his purpose only by supporting my candidacy. My personal interest is of no concern one way or the other, but it happens that at this time I am and cannot be at the great cause which can be furthered only by supporting me. Almost everywhere where I have been able to appear personally in this campaign and fight the bosses we have beaten them and I ask that Minnesota stand beside Oregon and Illinois, Pennsylvania and Nebraska, Maine, Kansas and Maryland in this fight.

(Signed) Theodore Roosevelt.

POOL SELLING ON BASEBALL GAMES TO BE SUP- PRESSED

NEW YORK, May 10.—Officials of the baseball clubs in New York, Brooklyn and Jersey City have joined today with the police in a crusade to suppress pool selling on baseball games. District Attorney Crotty of Kings county has taken up the legal question of selling baseball pools, which he says, he has been informed was going on at wholesale in Brooklyn and Manhattan. Agents have been assigned to collect evidence to be presented to a grand jury. The police commissioners in Jersey City have called a special meeting for next Wednesday to consider the question of baseball pools.

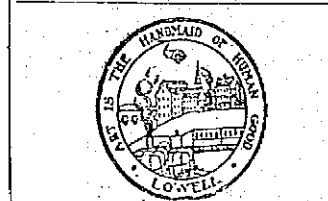

Investigation shows that in hundreds of saloons and cigar stores tickets are sold in what is known as "blind" pools.

STRIKERS' DEMANDS SUBMITTED TO AGENT WADLEIGH OF MERRIMACK MILLS

As a result of a complaint entered at the police station yesterday, the strikers were not quite as noisy today in the vicinity of Anne street as on previous days. The residents of that street as well as the teachers of the high school presented a protest at the station yesterday and asked that the police put a stop to the noise which had no more result than to disturb the people, especially the pupils of this school.

This morning Supt. Welch addressed the strikers in Anne street and told them they would have to cut out the shouting or they would be liable to arrest for disturbing the peace. They were told they could parade, but to do it in a decent way, that is not to disturb the residents of that district. The strikers fortunately took the advice and although shouting was not cut out entirely, there was an improvement in their conduct from the previous day.

The strikers have formulated their demands and submitted them to Agent Wadleigh as follows:

First: Reinstatement of all employees in their former positions without discrimination.

Second: The adjustment of all future grievances between the firm and the employees through a shop committee of employees, and the agent or authorized representatives of the company, subject to rules mutually to be agreed upon.

Third: Abolition of all overtime work or payment at rate of time and a quarter, etc., no matter how long the employee has been with the firm.

Agent Wadleigh's Answer
Agent Wadleigh said to the committee: "We consider our answer to your shop committee on May 7 covers the questions in your letter. We cannot see that any good can result from going over the matter again."

FINANCIAL HOUSE CLEANING

According to the determination of State Tax Commissioner Trefry he will proceed under the statutes to compel the tax collectors of cities and towns to give an account of all the taxes left uncollected over three years.

Then we are to have a general financial house cleaning as it were.

Verily it is high time that something of this kind were done as the citizens are weary of hearing that a very large amount of the tax levy remains uncollected for one reason or another. When taxes remain uncollected for five, ten and as high as thirteen years, it is time to have them wiped off the books. Other debts are outlawed in six years and taxes should be collected in that time or else wiped off the books by abatement.The taxes on real estate regulate themselves because the property is advertised for sale in two years if the taxes are not paid. It may be of interest to some to know that taxes on polls or personal property are not outlawed by a time limit same as other debts.The taxpayers of Lowell will rejoice to see this matter pushed to the limit. There has undoubtedly been laxity in the collections, resulting of course in allowing many to evade payment who are well able to pay.Moreover we need the money and at a time when our municipal board is planning to appeal to the legislature for permission to borrow outside the debt limit to pay off a temporary loan, it is time to start a movement to collect all the back taxes that are collectable and to abate all that can't be collected. It appears that since 1899 the amount of taxes standing uncollected upon our books is nearly $200,000. The question arises how much of this amount is collectable now and whether it could have been collected at any earlier day if the tax collector had taken the right course to get the money.The city of Lowell is not alone in this dilemma as the collectors of Boston and other cities are called upon to explain many things on which they may find it difficult to satisfy the state commissioner.

TO PENSION CITY LABORERS

The legislature has passed an act to pension city laborers on reaching the age of sixty, or earlier if incapacitated for further service, provided that in the first case the laborer has been in the employ of the city for not less than 25 years and in the latter for not less than fifteen years. The act is to be submitted to the voters. That is how the legislature shirks its responsibility in such cases, thus sending many unnecessary and dangerous acts to the people. Some of these occasionally get by and as a result great injury results to the cities or towns adopting them. This city has had all the pensions it wants and perhaps more than it wants. It is likely to have less rather than more. The Moffatt pension is in the air, and if it cannot be overcome there may be a move to abolish police pensions altogether.
The patrolmen would have preferred an increase in wages, and this would have been granted long ago but for the pension system. If the city laborers were granted pensions then there would be a demand for pensions for clerks in the departments, for teachers and in fact every city official from city treasurer down to poundkeeper.

SERVICE PENSIONS FOR VETERANS

Congress has adopted a service pension bill which will include all the veterans of the Civil war who served at least ninety days and have reached the age of sixty-two. The number of the veterans is rapidly growing less and those who are rightly to come in for the benefit of this pension act are not likely to remain long. Among its beneficiaries however, will be the survivors of 11,000 men who enlisted toward the close of the war under the last call for troops but who never saw any service in the field. They were all discharged three months after their enlistment. The pension law to them must seem particularly beneficent, while to the men who passed through the final battles of the war it will come as a welcome "relief granted to surviving soldiers, few in number, venerable in age, after a long lapse of time since their military service and as a parting benefaction tendered by a grateful people."

THE RICHESON CASE

The charge that the Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, the self-confessed murderer, is or was a Mormon does not seem to be authenticated. One woman swore that she attended meetings of the Mormons at which Richeson was the leading spirit, but several elders testify that Richeson did not belong to that cult. One atheist avers that Richeson is sane, yet others can be found who will find him non compos mentis, so that the governor and council cannot safely rely upon such evidence.President Taft hit Roosevelt a staggering blow out in Ohio when he said: "Roosevelt did not prosecute the Harvester trust, he did not prosecute the steel trust, and now George W. Perkins is one of the chief contributors to his campaign. Had I failed to prosecute these trusts and were
I now receiving campaign contributions from them what would Mr.
Roosevelt say when in face of these facts he has the boldness to say that I represent the special interests?" He gave Roosevelt the credit of great courage in making these statements, but he did not refer to his accomplishments as a member of the Ananias club.The great need of a comfort station is daily emphasized at Merrimack square. The public supposed that steps had been taken to provide such a public necessity somewhere around the corner on Paige street but nothing has been done in the matter.The mill operatives of Lowell in our opinion have had all the vacation they want for some time, and they should, therefore, take care not to be led into any action that will cause another general shut-down to last well through the summer.

Seen and Heard

George M. Rex, the expert accountant who examined the financial books
of this city and who was in Lowell today, is the secretary of the National Association of Comptrollers and Accounting Officers and this association
is to hold its seventh annual convention
at Buffalo, N. Y., June 2, 7 and 8. The president of the association is Hon.
Edmund D. Fisher, deputy comptroller,
New York city, and the first vice-president is Hon. Samuel M. Wilbitt, comptroller, Louisville, Kentucky. Hon.
W. S. McCormick, comptroller, Duluth,
Minnesota, is the treasurer. The purpose of the meeting is to consider improved methods of public finance and
the extension of the movement for the installation of a uniform system of state and municipal accounting and reporting, together with the general development of the principles of economy and efficiency in national, state and municipal administration.There's a letter box at the door and the pennypost deposits our letters
there when we're away. It seems that Bill thought the box was a genuine letter box and a place to deposit letters addressed to any part of the country, and he slipped one in. Little Jimmie, the forty-horse power messenger boy, was rushing baseball copy when he noticed the letter dropping the letter in the box and Jimmie laughed so hard that he had to go home and have a whole lot of new buttons sewed on.
"You're always poking fun at somebody else and I think it's up to you
to give yourself a rap in that Seen
and Heard column," said Jimmie between spasms, and just to show Jimmie that there's no "handip" and no discrimination we mention the action of the absent minded scribe.Herbert E. March, the charity expert of Jacksonville, was talking about charity."The rich give far more in charity,"
he said, "than is generally believed. It's together—erroneous—the prevalent idea of the rich man's callous, 'stupid'
attitude in the face of poverty and suffering.""That prevalent idea is illustrated well in the story of Mrs. Gobsa Golde, to whom a charity worker said, 'Thousands of poor people freeze to death every winter.'""Dear me! Mrs. Gobsa Golde replied. 'Why don't they go to California?'"I. N. Crawford, a well-known hardware merchant of La Porte, Ind., loves
a joke. He prefers that it should be at the expense of some one else, but as sometimes happens to the joker, his jokes are occasionally boomerangs.
One day a farmer entered Mr. Craw-ford's store and asked if he could exchange some butter for hardware. The humor of the thing appealed to the proprietor."Why, certainly," he said. "Take the butter right up to the house. My wife is not at all particular."The Hoosier farmer looked him over slowly and critically from head to foot and then drawled out: "Land o' Goshen! I should say not."

Springtime Aids to Beauty

By CLEO DE GALYS

"A genuine complexion beautifier is made at home by dissolving an original package of mayatote in a half pint
of witch hazel. Gently rub this solution over the face, neck and forehead
in the morning and it will 'hold' all
day. It will not rub off nor show like powder and makes the skin soft, satinny and pliable.""No toilet table is complete without a jar of Mother's Salve. It is a splendid remedy for chaps, cold sores, pimples, eczema and skin eruptions. It is antiseptic and heals cuts, burns, scalds and long-standing sores.""A safe, sure and speedy way to remove superfluous hair on face or forearms is by applying delatone paste.
Mix enough powdered delatone and water to cover the hairs, apply, and wipe off after two or three minutes;
then wash the skin and the hairs will be gone.""Soap and water dull and deaden
hair. It is better to use a dry shampoo
to clean the hair and scalp. Mix four ounces of powdered orris root with an original package of therox, sift a teaspoonful over the head and brush thoroughly through the hair. This treatment makes the hair grow long and abundant, and it becomes bright, wavy
and beautifully lustrous."

FLORAL TABLE DECORATIONS

Have you ever seen a table in summer decorated with wild carrot? It costs nothing and when arranged in masses in a deep green bowl is cool and dainty. If you can get the seededs to mix in with the carrot the effect is heightened. In selecting a floral centerpiece strive for variety. Have a different decoration for each meal.
Even if flowers must be used more than once, as is natural where one has a small garden, it takes little time tohave a separate decoration for each meal. At breakfast keep the scheme simple. Some people will not use flowers at this meal, but a few fresh bloom-ers in a slender vase are sure to attract.
The dinner decoration should have thought put on it.If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

IT OUGHT TO.

Towne—I'm going to call my drama "The Vacuum Cleaner."
Browne—That ought to have some drawing power.

NO DOUBT.

"Reggy's wife has sued him for a divorce."
"Will she marry again or go back to the stage?"
"Yes."

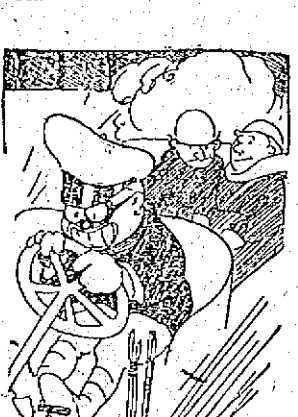

CONCISELY STATED.

"What sort of a hit did Reggy make?"
"Sort of a dull thud."

HAD A REASON.

Belle—I understand you bought a gold brick?
Harry—Had to. It was the only way I could get my name in print.

NO DOUBT ABOUT IT.

"Are you sure your chauffeur can be trusted?"
"Yes, sir. We belong to the same college fraternity."

CAUTION.

Myrtle—Did you hear how that fully sarcastic Miss Bangs got over with little Arthur Jones?
Marion—No.
Myrtle—She got up and gave him his seat in the street car.
